Examine how religious beliefs in India are acting as a barrier for promoting scientific temper. (250 Words)

Promoting scientific temper is a fundamental duty under Article 51A of Constitution. But parallel existence of religious belief across various religions and its entanglement with the lifestyles became barriers to promote scientific temper.

RELIGION OBSTRUCTING SCIENTIFIC SPIRIT

- Willing to believe superstition than understanding scientific logic behind a process
 - Reliance on witch craft techniques than medicine for diseases
 - Religiosity blinds people to go to the extent of human sacrifices
 - Wasting productive life in pursuit of religious superstitions
 - Obstructing application of scientific procedure for human welfare
- Eg:
- ✓ Jews and Muslims communities' objections to post-mortem
 - ✓ Catholics objections to abortions
 - ✓ Ancient superstitions of crossing seas as sin, stagnated Indian society against explorations and innovations
- Prevents collaborative efforts by different communities towards innovation
 - Impedes scientific success
 - ✓ Vaccine hesitancy

- Restricting females towards education and empowerment
 - Religious deliberation in science conferences like Indian Science Congress
 - Belief in religious answers derails further questioning and curiosity
 - Scientific applications in social life is hampered
- Eg: Religious ban on use of contraceptives
Putting women in traditional, unhygienic huts during their menstrual period

CONCLUSION

Religion should complement innovations and adoption of scientific temper. There are even instances of collaboration of science and religion. It is the obligation of state, civil society and religious leaders to channelize the constructive convergence of science and religion.

Among the Indian minorities, the socio-economic progress of Christians is much higher in comparison to Muslims. Explain this paradox with valid reasons. (150 Words)

- Muslims form the largest minority group constituting 14% of Indian population. But they are lagging behind not only in comparison to majority but also other minorities.
- As acknowledged by Sachar Committee, they are lacking in terms of social status, political activism, financial condition, education and in almost every other factor that defines prosperity of a community.

REASONS FOR SOCIO-ECONOMIC PROGRESS AMONG CHRISTIANS

REASONS FOR BACKWARDNESS OF MUSLIMS

As per Sachar Committee, apart from government neglect, the community itself is also responsible for their appalling condition.

- Muslims in India are divided on political lines
- Have no or little national leadership
- Have dismal entrepreneurial ambitions due to the ghetto lifestyles
✓ E.g.: Very few businessmen like Azim Premji, Yusuf Hamjed
- Poor modern education exposure in Madrasas
- Excessive restrictions on female towards modernity
- Dependence on traditional personal law than codification towards modernity
- Poor participation in fields of administration and journalism
- Shortage of Urdu language in school education

CONCLUSION

In this situation, greater responsibility lies with the institutions of state and religion together. Gender empowerment and exposure to modern laws is necessary. Awareness and utilization of their constitutional rights is must.

During the previous decade, there is massive fall in the Labour Force Participation Rate for women. Examine the underlying reasons with suggestions for reversing this trend. (250 Words)

As per Economic Survey 2017-18, percentage of women who work declined over time from 36% in 2005-06 to 24% in 2015-16.

REASONS FOR DECLINING PARTICIPATION OF WOMEN IN EMPLOYMENT

REASONS FOR DECLINING PARTICIPATION OF WOMEN IN EMPLOYMENT

SUGGESTIONS FOR REVERSING THIS TREND

- Gender-responsive public services.
 - ✓ E.g.: Free and accessible public toilets,
 - ✓ safe and secure public transport,
 - ✓ adequate lighting and CCTV cameras to prevent violence against women in public places.
- Fair and decent wages without gender bias with appropriate social security benefits.
- Governments must set up migration facilitation, creches and crisis centres.
- Nudging the private sector companies benchmarking at certain percentage of LFPR for women.
- Women-centric policies in agriculture.

THE WAY FORWARD

Awareness and strict implementation of schemes like One Stop Centres and effective utilization of Nirbhaya funds is necessary. Focus on multi-sectoral reforms that have a positive impact on women's work opportunities is the need of the hour.

What do you understand by “unlawful activity” under the “Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Amendment Act, 2019”? Critics say that the Act sacrifices personal liberty for national security. Do you agree? Justify your point of view. (250 Words)

Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Amendment Act, 2019 defines unlawful activity as an action -

- that incites an individual or group of individuals to bring about secession;
- intended to disrupt sovereignty and territorial integrity of India; and
- cause of disaffection against India.

RECENT AMENDMENT IN 2019

- Allows Home Ministry to designate an individual as terrorist

SACRIFICING PERSONAL LIBERTY

- Presumes citizen as guilty even before the person has been found guilty by a court
- No safeguards in the act to prevent misuse against individual
- Terms like “causing disaffection against India” are ambiguous and can be misused to curtail freedom of speech and expression
- Person loses liberty
- Social stigma as the individual’s family is associated with someone designated as terrorist
- Could be used to harass innocent people

AMENDMENT IS A GOVERNANCE IMPERATIVE

THE WAY AHEAD

State should consider broader consensus through parliamentary committees and civil society consultation in enacting such sensitive laws. Law should balance both national security and public concerns.

Examine various traits of democratic governance, which sometimes create imbalance between “Society” and “State”. Elaborate your answer with recent examples.
(150 Words)

In a democracy, realising certain traits of democratic governance may create imbalance due to reasons like miscommunication, poor implementation and perceived narrowness in realising the trait. It erodes societal trust in democratic governance.

RECENT EXAMPLES AND THE TRAITS

1. SECURITY

- ✓ Empowering Home Ministry to designate terrorists under UAPA amendment
- ✓ Enabling extra territorial jurisdiction to NIA to register cases
- ✓ Civil society perceives it being a surveillance state and affecting federal relations

2. SECULARISM

- ✓ CAA allowing citizenship status to all persecuted minorities except Muslims from Afghanistan, Pakistan and Bangladesh
- ✓ Social groups like Muslims feel collective threat to their community
- ✓ Considered against Article 14 of Right to Equality

3. REALISING INCLUSIVE WELFARE

- ✓ Mandating integration of Aadhar to essential services
- ✓ Fears of exclusion of poor and vulnerable sections from access to welfare benefits

4. ESTABLISH RIGHT TO EQUALITY AND RIGHT AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

- ✓ Allowing women entry into Sabarimala
- ✓ Making instant triple talaq illegal
- ✓ Perceived as state interference into personal laws of social communities

FINALLY

It is the responsibility of state organs to realize democratic traits against all odds. But this has to be guided by inclusive dialogue, transparency in implementation and active citizen grievance redressal.

Examine the fundamental differences in the activities of Central Bureau of Investigation and National Investigation Agency. How does the recent amendments to the NIA Act impinge on the federal structure of the Constitution? (250 Words)

FUNDAMENTAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN CBI AND NIA

SUBJECT	CBI (CENTRAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION)	NIA (NATIONAL INVESTIGATION AGENCY)
PURPOSE	Premier investigating agency of India	India's premier counter terror agency
CREATION	Executive body under Delhi Special Police Establishment Act, 1946. • Works under the Ministry of Personnel and Public Grievances.	Statutory body under National Investigation Agency Act, 2008. • Works under Home Ministry.
FUNCTIONS	Investigate cases related to crime and corruption.	• Investigate cases that deal with security and integrity of the country.
POWERS	• Need permission of State Government before Investigating a case against Central Government employee. • If a crime is committed in a State, CBI has to wait for the State Government or a Court to call it to investigate.	• More powerful than CBI. • Powers to take Suo Motu cognizance of terrorist activities in any part of India. • Can register a case and enter any State without permission.

RECENT AMENDMENTS - MORE TEETH TO NIA

➤ Extra-territorial jurisdiction:

Allows NIA to register case -

- ✓ When Indians living abroad, or Indian's assets based in a foreign country comes under attack from terrorists.
- ✓ If an Indian embassy comes under attack abroad.
- ✓ If Indian underwater cables of communication in international water are sabotaged.

➤ Setting up of special courts:

- ✓ Existing sessions courts will be allowed to function as special courts. Hence, trial can start immediately.

➤ Addition of offences:

- ✓ Human trafficking, manufacture or sale of prohibited arms, cyber-crimes, violations under explosive substances act are added.
- ✓ NIA can prosecute people in stand-alone cases under these acts.

AFFECT ON FEDERAL STRUCTURE

- Against Indian federalism, which guarantees state's autonomy.
- Further renders the State police forces redundant and centralizes even ordinary prosecutions with Union Government.
- Giving stand-alone powers in particular cases will take away the powers of State Government.
- Criminal law and procedures are matters under concurrent list.
- Agency was created to investigate crimes against the country as opposed to ordinary criminal offences.
 - ✓ Maintenance of Public order and Police is the state subject.

CONCLUSION

Amendments to NIA strengthened the organisation to deal with major issues of national security. But, some of its activities goes against the principles of Indian federalism.

What is a Theatre Command? Citing global practices, examine the need for more Theatre Commands in Indian Defence Architecture. (150 Words)

Theatre Command is an organisational structure that integrates tri-services assets and personnel. It places the resources of all forces at the command of senior military commander.

GLOBAL PRACTICES – NEED FOR MORE THEATRE COMMANDS

- US has 11 unified combatant commands.
 - ✓ 6 geographic commands to handle different parts of globe.
 - ✓ 5 'functional' to handle nuclear, arsenal, space, cyber space etc.
- China reorganized 2-3 million PLA into 5 theatre commands.
 - ✓ Western theatre command handles entire line of actual control with India.
- Andaman and Nicobar Command is the only integrated theatre command in India.
 - ✓ Very small with limited resources.
- India has
 - ✓ 17 single service commands
 - ✓ Only 2 unified commands
 - ✓ Strategic forces command handles nuclear arsenal

THE WAY AHEAD

In the era of new age security threats, inter-service coordination and theatre commands are much needed. Success lies in achieving the jointness of forces in operations in real sense.

Threats to “space-based assets and cyber security” are considered as new age challenges for internal security. Examine how far India is geared up to face these new age challenges. (250 Words)

New age challenges from Space-based assets and Cyber Security are increasing as countries like USA and China are embracing innovative war strategies. This results in both internal and external security threats.

NEW AGE CHALLENGES FOR INTERNAL SECURITY

PREPAREDNESS OF INDIA TO FACE NEW AGE CHALLENGES

- In late 2018, Government decided to set up three new agencies to address the new age challenges to national security:
 - ✓ The Defence Cyber Agency
 - ✓ The Defence Space Agency
 - ✓ Special Operations Division
- Establishment of Chief of Defence Staff
- Institutionalizing theatre commands in line with recommendations of Naresh Chandra Task Force and Shekatkar Committee etc.

NEW-AGE CHALLENGES — NECESSARY DEFENCE REFORMS

THE WAY FORWARD

Establishing CDS should be followed by streamlining military procurement process and quick modernization of defence infrastructure. Simultaneous training of theatre commands using new age defence equipment is of immediate need.

How will the newly created Chief of Defence Staff result in the “optimal utilisation of resources” and “strategic convergence with the civilian administration”? (250 Words)

Anomalous civil military relations in India led to little engagement between Political Apex and Military top brass. Civil bureaucracy mediation between military and Government resulted in unresolved disputes to fester and poor utilization of resources. Creation of CDS is an attempt to address such challenges.

MISSING LINKS IN CIVIL MILITARY COORDINATION

- Roles of Defence secretary and Military Chiefs are not clear
- Interactions between civil and military are mostly through files than personal engagement
- Chairman, Chiefs of Staff Committee is marred with allegations of bias.
- Lack of tri-service integration
- Post of Chairman, CoSC is held in rotation by serving Chiefs of tri-services
 - ✓ Resulted in poor focus on infrastructure efficiency
 - ✓ Led to duplication of works
- Kargil Review Committee and Naresh Chandra Committee recommended permanent Chairman, CoSC
- Advice to Civil Head from multiple Chiefs led to complexity in decision making
- Service Chiefs devote most of their time to their operational roles and it affects synergy of forces
- No streamlining of military procurements

CDS: STRATEGIC CONVERGENCE WITH THE CIVILIAN ADMINISTRATION

Strategic convergence

Optimizing the resources

THE WAY AHEAD

- CDS facilitates India to face new age threats on Space and Cyber front in a better way.
- CDS initiative should be complemented with the new-age defence reforms in accordance with recommendations of various committees.
- Enhancing efficiency and combat capability on par with advanced technological standards is the need of the hour.

Discuss the values of Punctuality, Gratitude and Respect to Women.
Elaborate with specific examples. (250 Words)

1. PUNCTUALITY

- It implies being on time or valuing time. Most successful individuals realize the worth of time and are shy of misusing it.
E.g.: Gandhi walked the principle of not wasting a grain of food or a scrap of paper or a minute of time.
- Big B Amitabh Bachchan is known for punctuality. For the release of the first look of his film “leader”, when he was stuck in traffic, he got off the car, ran across the street and made it.
- Being a civil servant, one is supposed to deliver multiple things at the same time. Punctuality can come in handy in such cases.

2. GRATITUDE

- It is the value of being thankful. Remembering the help in times of need and having a sense of indebtedness to such individual is the essence of gratitude.
✓ E.g.: Shankar Nag was a leading actor-cum director in Karnataka film industry. He was impressed with the London metro and wanted to replicate the same in Bangalore. He met CM and made trips to London for the project out of his personal savings. When his wife asked the reason, he replied, “Should I not do even this for the city that has given me so much?”.

3. RESPECT TO WOMEN

It implies:

- Recognizing women as equal to men
- Acknowledging their strength
- Providing them equal opportunities
- Having a deep sense of regard for them
 - ✓ E.g.: Vedic scriptures claim “Wherever a woman is worshiped, there dwells god”.
 - ✓ D.K.Karve, the social reformer, battled strongly for widow remarriage. He even set himself an example by marrying an young widow.
 - ✓ M.G.Ranade set up first school for girls to offer them education.
 - ✓ Kabir in his couplets reflects the greatness of women as below –
Nari ninda na karo, Nari raltan ki khan
Nari se nar hota hai, Dhurb Prahlad Samaan.
(Do not defame woman. She is like a mine of precious stones.
Man is born from woman. Even great persons like Dhurb and Prahlad were born from woman).

CONCLUSION

These values along with values of love, compassion, selfless service etc. results in progressive humanity and peaceful society.

Analyse teleological ethics with related illustrations. (150 Words)

Teleological ethics are normative ethics in which rightness or wrongness of any action is determined by the consequences that action produce. It has two dimensions:

1. Consequentialist approach

- An action is ethical if it leads to ethical outcomes. Ends justify means.
- To illustrate, robbing money from rich to distribute amongst poor (the Robinhood way) is treated ethical. The unethical act of robbing is made ethical by the good outcomes it produces.

2. Belief that there are no standards of ethical conduct or behavior. Every human thought, conduct or behavior has to be interpreted in the light of outcomes to decide its ethically.

- E.g.: The act of civil servant to forcefully take private lands to construct a multi-specialty hospital is ethical.

CONCLUSION

There are several variants of teleological ethics like utilitarianism, ethical egoism and state consequentialism. All these theories emphasize a greatest good of greatest number of people as outcome for an action to be ethical.

Explain ethical framework for judiciary as per 2nd ARC Report. (150 Words)

2nd ARC emphasizes on the charter adopted by Supreme Court i.e., “Re-statement of values of judicial life” as an ethical framework for judiciary. It includes:

- Do not contest election to any office of a club or society.
- Do not maintain association with any member of bar to ensure impartiality.
- Do not permit any family member to practice before him/her to prevent partisan judgements.
- Do not give interviews to media during the tenure.
- Do not accept gifts except from family members, close relatives and friends.
- Do not speculate in shares.
- Do not raise funds for any association.

CONCLUSION

Establishing National Judicial Council empowered to enquire into alleged misconduct and impose minor penalties should be setup as recommended by 2nd ARC. A Supreme Court Judge should be designated as Judicial values commissioner to enforce code of conduct.
