AIRSTRIKES ON YEMEN...

FORGOTTEN CRISIS

1 Seeing the power vacuum, al-Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula steadily expanded its influence.

2 Strikes on civilians and lack of interest in finding a solution by Saudi Arabia came under international criticism.

3 6,400 people died due to air strikes, half of them are civilians.

4 Over 30,000 injured, millions of children are in urgent need of humanitarian aid.

5 2.5 million people displaced.

6 There are food, power and water shortages. It is facing one of the worst humanitarian crises in modern history.
