POST TRUTH

- 1 It is declared as the Oxford Dictionary's Word of the Year 2016.
- 2 It relates to denoting the circumstances, where objective facts are less influential in shaping the public opinion than appeal to emotion and personal belief.

REALITY OF PAKISTAN

- 1 No Prime Minister completed a full five-year term in Pakistan's 70-year history.
- 2 Nawaz Sharif became the only thrice elected Prime Minister, who had his tenure cut short each time by 'the empire', or the Deep State in Pakistan.

MOSSACK  FONSECA

WHAT ABOUT THIS PANAMAGATE?

- 1 The Panama Papers leaks in April, last year consisted of more than 11 million documents, from the law firm Mossack Fonseca. This information pertains to off-shore entities and bank accounts.
- 2 Of these, eight pertained to Nawaz Sharif, his sons Hassan and Hussain and his daughter and political heir Maryam.
- 3 These revealed four property purchases by the family in London in the 1990s.

The Opposition Leader Imran Khan, immediately dubbed it Panamagate and demanded Mr. Sharif's resignation.

CHRONOLOGY

- 1 On April 20, 2017, the Supreme Court came out with a split verdict and finally, it resulted in the establishment of a Joint Investigation Team (JIT).
- 2 The JIT is unprecedented in Pakistan's judicial history.
- 3 The team included officials from the Federal Investigation Agency, State Bank of Pakistan, and an officer each from the Inter-Services Intelligence (ISI) and the Military Intelligence.
- 4 The 10-volume report was submitted to the Supreme Court on July 10.

CHRONOLOGY

- 5 The Committee recommended re-opening of a number of earlier cases, while initiating a clutch of new inquiries.
- 6 The Supreme Court has reached a unanimous verdict, disqualifying Mr. Sharif and Finance Minister.
- 7 It also directed the National Accountability Bureau (NAB) to initiate cases against Nawaz Sharif, his sons and daughter and others.
- 8 NAB is to complete its task within six months, before the elections next year.

WHAT ARE THE CONTENTIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT?

- 1 It invoked a controversial Article of the Constitution that requires politicians to be “honest” and “righteous”.
- 2 The Court ruled that Mr. Sharif was dishonest in failing to disclose in his 2013 election nomination papers, his association with a UAE-based company and therefore was unfit to continue in office.
- 3 It also referred money-laundering allegations against Mr. Sharif and his children.

ARE SUCH TYPE OF INCIDENTS REGULAR IN PAKISTAN POLITICS?

- 1 These types of incidences like Civilian Governments being subordinated to the military/Supreme Court are quite common in Pakistan.
- 2 Coup by military is also quite common.
- 3 The Supreme Court most of the times takes side with the military.
- 4 Many times India is not clear to whom it has to discuss on the terrorists issues.

Overall, Pakistan has no trust in democratic and judicial principles and it is a well-known fact.

NAWAZ SHARIF AND THREE DISMISSALS

THE FIRST INSTANCE

- In 1993, amid increasing differences with General Abdul Waheed Kakar, President Ghulam Ishaq Khan dismissed his government, but Mr. Sharif fought back, and the Supreme Court restored his position.
- The army then brokered a deal under which both he and the President resigned.

THE SECOND INSTANCE

- After the nuclear tests of 1998 by India, he sent peace overtures with the then Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee, which were subsequently derailed by the Kargil conflict.
- He attempted to replace General Pervez Musharraf, which resulted in his exile for eight years.

THE THIRD INSTANCE

- Now, the Supreme Court disqualified him on various charges of dishonesty.
- Imran Khan's Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf played the role of the King's party and the Supreme Court legitimised the ouster.

WHAT IS THIS DEEP STATE IN PAKISTAN?

*Under these circumstances,
Pakistan will continue to be a problem for India.*

- 1 The Deep State is the Pakistani military and its intelligence agencies.
- 2 This is the core of the establishment through which the Deep State rules the country.
- 3 Sometimes, the Deep State is strengthened by the top leadership of certain political parties, high-level members of the bureaucracy and business persons.
- 4 Sometimes, the Judiciary also becomes one of the organs of Deep State.
- 5 Coups in Pakistan come in different forms and this was a judicial coup, as the judgment was reached before the trial was done.

WHY INDIA IS CONCERNED ABOUT DEEP STATE OF PAKISTAN?

- 1 India does not know specifically to whom to discuss, the issues related to cross-border terrorism as well as boundary issues.
- 2 Cross-border terror issues crops up quiet often across Line of Control. These are believed to be orchestrated by the Pakistani military/ISI. But, the Indian Government talks to Civilian Govt. in Pakistan and this does not give any fruitful results.
- 3 Whenever, any effort is made to ensure peace/discussions on terrorist related issues takes place or whenever visits of Heads of State takes place, these are normally associated with increase in cross border terror related incidents.
- 4 It authenticates India's perception clearly, that deep state is in play in Pakistan.
- 5 It appears that even the civilian administration does not know, what happens really in PoK region.

Under these circumstances, solving the issue of cross border related terrorism is becoming complex from Indian perspective.
