CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS & AWARDS

FAMOUS CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS (PART- I)

MODULE – 1

INTRODUCTION

- 1 The Constitution of India has vested upon the Government of India with the responsibility to preserve, conserve and propagate the Indian culture and there are various government and non government organisations that specialise in safeguarding the long cultural traditions of India.
- 2 There is a need for revival of the Indian culture and to ensure that the coming generations would understand the importance of India's past, society, culture and politics.

There are several institutions in India whose existence depends upon the preservation of our heritage. Let us now discuss these institutions elaborately.

THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF INDIA

- 1 The Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) is directly under the aegis of the Ministry of Culture and it is the foremost institution for archaeological researches conducted across India

- 2 It has been charged with preservation of the cultural heritage of our nation.
- 3 Maintenance of ancient monuments and archaeological sites and remains of national importance is the prime concern of the ASI.
- 4 Besides it regulate all archaeological activities in the country as per the provisions of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958.
- 5 It also regulates Antiquities and Art Treasure Act, 1972.

6 This Act directs ASI to prevent the illegal export of Indian antiquities from our nation.

7 Although the ASI is charged with the control over all heritage sites across the nation, for the smooth functioning, the entire country has been divided into 24 Circles, which concentrate on preservation of monuments under their jurisdiction.

8 ASI employs many trained archaeologists, architects, conservators, epigraphists, and scientists etc

THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL SURVEY OF INDIA

Since its inception the UAW is actively engaged in conducting underwater archaeological studies in the Arabian Sea and Bay of Bengal.

9 They have other institutions under their aegis like the Museums, Excavation branches, Epigraphy branches, Building Survey Projects, Horticulture branch, Temple Survey Projects, etc.

10 One of the more specialised and one in the kind project by the ASI is their Underwater Archaeology Wing.

11 The ASI also has several diploma and degree courses for studying archaeology from the Institute of Archaeology in New Delhi.

INDIAN NATIONAL TRUST FOR ART AND CULTURAL HERITAGE (INTACH)

The INTACH logo has been derived from this 3000-year-old anthropomorphic copper figure found at Shahabad, UP.

1 The Indian National Trust for Art and Cultural Heritage or INTACH is a non-profit organisation, which was founded in 1984 in New Delhi.

2 The primary purpose of the organisation was to spearhead awareness regarding our heritage and to take steps to conserve it.

3 The organization has various branches that are called 'Chapters'.

4 Today INTACH is recognized as one of the world's largest heritage organizations, with over 190 Chapters across the Country.

5 The first governing council of the INTACH consisted of noted people like the former PM Rajiv Gandhi, M.G.K Menon, Dr. Kapila Vatsyayan, Madhavrao Scindia etc.

INTACH UK TRUST

The Indian National Trust
for Art and Cultural Heritage

6 The work done by INTACH is supported by various governmental agencies and several foreign countries have signed Memorandum of Understanding with them.

7 The most famous example is the INTACH UK Trust that was established in 1987 through a bequest from the Charles Wallace foundation.

8 The aim of this trust is to support the cause of heritage conservation in India.

9 They also help people reconcile tourism activities and conservation of monuments, as they are necessary both for the preservation of our culture and its dissemination to the world.

INDIAN NATIONAL TRUST FOR ART AND CULTURAL HERITAGE (INTACH)

According to the Memorandum of Rules and Regulations of INTACH they are supposed to:

4 Strengthen and extend cooperation to other national conservation institutions like ASI in terms of preservation and maintenance.

3 To create Heritage Walks that would cover major areas of historic cities and create awareness amongst the citizens about the living cultural heritage that surrounds them.

1 Restore the monuments and ruins to their original state and then help with the subsequent management and sustenance of the monument.

2 To create awareness amongst the masses about conservation of heritage property.

WHAT DO YOU UNDERSTAND BY HERITAGE WALKS?

- Heritage Walks are conducted very often by the INTACH Chapters.
- These Walks help in creating awareness of that particular area to all participants.
- When a group of people go around a structure/precinct and share their knowledge with others, interest is generated all around and many people from nearby places join the group to share their knowledge, nostalgia and little unknown facts which may lead to understanding that particular place thoroughly.
- They are conducted by experienced and knowledgeable walk-leaders.
- This helps citizens and tourists to relate to the historic parts of the city in a more personal and intimate manner.

CRAFTS COUNCIL OF INDIA

Kamala Devi

- 1 The Crafts Council of India or CCI is a non-profit organisation that promotes activities to preserve and develop handicraft industry in India.

- 2 The Crafts Council of India (CCI) was founded in 1964 by Kamaladevi Chattopadhyay as one of her pioneering efforts toward protecting and enhancing India's heritage in the nation's transition to modernity.

- 3 The CCI is a registered not for profit society head-quartered in Chennai, Tamilnadu.

- 4 They achieved a global platform after being affiliated to the World Crafts Council.

CRAFTS COUNCIL OF INDIA

- 5 Over the years they have established a series of shops that display the arts and crafts patronised by the Crafts Council.

- 6 These shops have also been named as 'Kamala' and the first Kamala shop has been established in Delhi in 2005.

- 7 The Crafts Council of India instituted the Annual Kamala Awards in 2000 in memory of Smt. Kamaladevi Chattopadhyay to honor and recognize craft activists and hereditary craft artisans for their work.

- 8 One of their current objectives is to find innovative ways to blend ancient handicraft techniques with contemporary ideas and demands.

INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL CENTRE FOR THE ARTS

- 6 The IGNCA is an autonomous institution that concentrates on research, conservation, display and dissemination of arts.

- 7 Although they concentrate on the visual and performing art, yet they also promote critical and creative literature.
- 8 Their main objective is to be the major resource centre for the oral and visual art forms in India
- 9 They need to accumulate and preserve art and crafts.
- 10 They need to conduct researches on arts and humanities and publish their findings in the form of reference works, glossaries, encyclopedia and dictionaries.
- 11 They should also cultivate linkages and webs of interaction with different strata of the society and different communities and regions.

ALL INDIA RADIO

WHAT DO YOU UNDERSTAND BY AKASAVANI?

- Akasavani is a Sanskrit word meaning 'celestial announcement' or 'voice from the sky/heaven'.
- In Hinduism, Jainism and Buddhism, Akashvanis are often featured in stories as a medium of communication from heaven to mankind.

- 1 The All India Radio is the premier public service radio broadcaster in India.
- 2 All India Radio (AIR), officially known since 1956 as Akashvani ("Voice from the Sky") is the national public radio broadcaster of India and is a division of Prasar Bharati.
- 3 It is the sister service of Prasar Bharati's Doordarshan, an Indian television broadcaster.
- 4 Motto of AIR is 'Bahujan Hitaya: Bahujan Sukhaya' which literally means that their sole objective is to serve, educate and entertain the audience.

ALL INDIA RADIO

- 5 Currently, AIR has 420 stations around the country and these stations cover nearly 92% of India's landmass.
- 6 Demographically, they reach out to almost 99.19% of the population.
- 7 AIR has a three-tier system of broadcasting. These three levels of programmes are the National, Regional and Local each having distinct audiences.

CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS OF INDIA

ALL INDIA RADIO

THREE-TIER BROADCASTING SYSTEM

NATIONAL SERVICES

- These are broadcast from Delhi.
- They are done in the languages of Hindi, Urdu and English.
- The programme composition of the channel had been designed to make it representative of the cultural mosaic and ethos of the country.

REGIONAL STATIONS

- Regional stations form the middle-tier of broadcasting.
- They are located in the major linguistic cultural regions of every state.
- They broadcast themes of music, news and current affairs, programs on health and family welfares etc.

LOCAL STATIONS

- Local Radio is relatively a newer concept of broadcasting in India.
- Local radio stations serve small communities, showcase local culture and broadcast area specific programmes for the benefit of the community.
- The programming is flexible and spontaneous and the stations function as the mouth piece of the local community.

ALL INDIA RADIO

WHAT IS PRASAR BHARATI ?

- Prasar Bharati is a statutory autonomous body established under the Prasar Bharati Act and came into existence on 23.11.1997.
- It is the Public Service Broadcaster of the country.
- The objectives of public service broadcasting are achieved in terms of Prasar Bharati Act through All India Radio and Doordarshan, which earlier were working as media units under the Ministry of I&B and since the above said date became constituents of Prasar Bharati.

- 8 Since its inception, AIR has tried to safeguard the citizen's rights by keeping them informed on all matters of public interest.
- 9 This can only be achieved by giving them a fair and balanced flow of information.
- 10 They create programmes in about 23 languages and 179 dialects.
- 11 The content, aims and objectives of AIR are governed by the Prasar Bharati Act, which was amended in 1990.

NEHRU MEMORIAL MUSEUM AND LIBRARY

- 1 The Nehru Memorial Museum and Library (NMML) was built in 1929-30.
- 2 It is an autonomous institution under the Ministry of Culture.

- 3 Its building was called the Teen Murti House and it was the official residence of the last British Commander-in-Chief.

- 4 After the British left India, it became the residence of the first Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

- 5 The building has four major constituents namely : a Memorial Museum, a Library on Modern India, a Centre of Contemporary Studies and Nehru Planetarium.

NEHRU MEMORIAL MUSEUM AND LIBRARY

6 Nehru lived in this house for 16 years and after he passed away in 1964, the government made Teen Murti House a museum and library in his honour.

7 The Museum was established with the express purpose of creating a space to exhibit memorabilia, mementos and any other object related to Pt. Nehru's life and India's freedom struggle.

All administrative documents related to officials who had worked in Nehru's administration and were intimately connected with his work should also be collected and documented.

They should establish a library to store the books, pamphlets, periodicals, microfilms, newspapers and administrative papers bearing the history of Modern India, with special reference to Nehru's papers.

They should also collect any papers pertaining to his family, close associates and friends.

They should collect and acquire all the historical materials and personal papers related to Jawaharlal Nehru and his life

They should also make all these documents available to the researchers through the library and to the public through exhibitions.

Currently, NMML organises weekly and monthly lectures, seminars, conferences, symposiums, etc. in India and abroad to promote the study of Indian history in general and Jawaharlal Nehru in particular.
