MODULE - 9

STAGE OF ENTRY INTO THE CIVIL SERVICES

- 1 Government of India should establish National Institutes of Public Administration to run Bachelor's Degree courses in public administration/governance/management. In the long run it is expected that these specialized centres of excellence (National Institutes of Public Administration) would evolve as major sources of civil services aspirants.

2 Selected Central and other Universities should also be assisted to offer such graduate level programmes in public administration/governance/public management which will produce graduates to further expand the pool of eligible applicants to the civil services.

STAGE OF ENTRY INTO THE CIVIL SERVICES

- 6 The Bridge course should be run by the same selected national institutes/universities, which conduct the graduate level courses.
- 7 Liberal need-based scholarships should be provided to students admitted to the Institutes/Universities.
- 8 An 'Expert Committee' should be appointed immediately by the Government in consultation with UPSC to develop the curricula and determine the admission policy to these selected institutes/ universities.

AGE OF ENTRY AND NUMBER OF ATTEMPTS

- 1 The permissible age for appearing in the Civil Services Examination should be 21 to 25 years for general candidates, 21 to 28 years for candidates from OBC and 21 to 29 years for candidates from SC/ST as also for those who are physically challenged.
- 2 The number of permissible attempts in the Civil Services Examination should be 3, 5, 6 and 6 respectively for general candidates, candidates from OBC, candidates from SC/ST and physically challenged candidates respectively.
- 3 The present cut-off date for determining the eligibility in terms of age (i.e. 1st of August in the year of the examination) may continue.

STRUCTURE OF THE CIVIL SERVICES EXAMINATION

1 Structure of Examination: Either of the following two models may be adopted for compressing the examination cycle.

- i The Preliminary and Main Examinations for the Civil Services Examination would be conducted together on two to three consecutive days.
- Evaluation of papers for the Main Examination should be done in case of only those candidates who have secured a threshold level of marks in the Preliminary Examination.
- The personality test would follow thereafter.

- Based on the results of the Preliminary Examination, candidates eligible for taking the main examination and the personality test would be short listed in accordance with their rankings.
- Only these short-listed candidates would be eligible for appearing in the Main Examination, which would be conducted within two months of the Preliminary Examination.
- The short list would be limited to about two to three times of the number of vacancies available. Thus it would be possible to start the Personality Test and the Main Examination almost simultaneously.

DEPUTATION OF CIVIL SERVANTS TO ORGANIZATIONS OUTSIDE GOVERNMENT

- In drawing up the list of external organizations to which government servants can be permitted to go on deputation, the primary consideration should be the objectives and activities of such organizations and not merely its organizational structure.
 - For the present Government should permit deputation of civil servants only to such organizations that are engaged in non-profit making activities.

- This policy may be reviewed after three years.

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

- A good employee performance appraisal system is a pre-requisite for an effective performance management system.
- The existing performance appraisal system should be strengthened on the following lines:

i Making appraisal more consultative and transparent - performance appraisal systems for all Services should be modified on the lines of the recently introduced PAR for the All India Services.

- ii Performance appraisal formats to be made job specific - the appraisal format prescribed for civil servants should have three sections i.e.
- (i) A generic section that meets the requirements of a particular service to which the officer belongs,
 - (ii) Another section based on the goals and requirements of the department in which he/ she is working, and
 - (iii) A final section which captures the specific requirements and targets relating to the post that the officer is holding.

- iii Performance appraisal should be year round: provisions for detailed work-plan and a mid-year review should be introduced for all Services.

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

- 2 Government should expand the scope of the present performance appraisal system of its employees to a comprehensive performance management system (PMS).
- 3
 - In implementing PMS in government, it must be emphasized that the PMS should be designed within the overall strategic framework appropriate to the particular ministry/ department/ organization.
 - It is also necessary to link individual contributions to strategic objectives of the organization.
 - It will therefore be necessary for each ministry/department/organization to customize its PMS relevant to them, while incorporating the general features.

PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

- 4 Annual performance agreements should be signed between the departmental minister and the Secretary of the ministry/heads of departments, providing physical and verifiable details of the work to be done during a financial year.
- 5 The actual performance should be assessed by a third party - say, the Central Public Services Authority - with reference to the annual performance agreement.
- 6 The details of the annual performance agreements and the result of the assessment by the third party should be provided to the legislature as a part of the Performance Budget/Outcome Budget.

MOTIVATING CIVIL SERVANTS

- 1 There is need to recognise the outstanding work of serving civil servants including through National awards. Awards for recognizing good performance should also be instituted at the State and district levels.
- 2 It must be ensured that selection for such awards is made through a prompt, objective and transparent mechanism because the value of such awards should not get compromised by either subjectivity or lack of transparency.
- 3 Further, all organizations should evolve their own in-house mechanism for rewarding good performance from simple, verbal and written appreciation to more tangible rewards.
- 4 Selections for foreign assignments should be made, based on the recommendations of the Central Civil Services Authority.

ACCOUNTABILITY

- 1 A system of two intensive reviews - one on completion of 14 years of service, and another on completion of 20 years of service - should be established for all government servants.
- 2 The first review at 14 years would primarily serve the purpose of intimating to the public servant about his/her strengths and shortcomings for his/ her future advancement.
- 3 The second review at 20 years would mainly serve to assess the fitness of the officer for his/her further continuation in government service. The detailed modalities of this assessment system would need to be worked out by government.

ACCOUNTABILITY

4 The services of public servants, who are found to be unfit after the second review at 20 years, should be discontinued.

5 A provision regarding this should be made in the proposed Civil Services Law. Besides, for new appointments it should be expressly provided that the period of employment shall be for 20 years.

6 Further continuance in government service would depend upon the outcome of the intensive performance reviews.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

- 1 In the proposed Civil Services law, the minimum statutory disciplinary and dismissal procedures required to satisfy the criteria of natural justice should be spelt out leaving the details of the procedure to be followed to the respective government departments.
- 2 The present oral inquiry process should be converted into a disciplinary meeting or interview to be conducted by a superior officer in a summary manner without the trappings and procedures borrowed from court trials.
- 3 This would require that the CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965 be repealed and substituted by appropriate regulations.
- 4 No penalty of removal and dismissal should be imposed, except by an Authority, which is at least three levels above the post which the government servant is holding.

Central Civil Services Rules, 1965

DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

- 5 Other penalties - apart from dismissal and removal - may be imposed by an Authority which is at least two levels above the current post of the government servant.
- 6 No penalty may be imposed, unless an inquiry is conducted and the accused government servant has been given an opportunity of being heard.
- 7 The two-stage consultation with the cvc in cases involving a vigilance angle should be done away with and only the second stage advice after completion of the disciplinary process, should be obtained.
- 8 In addition, for cases involving a vigilance angle, no consultation with the UPSC should be required.
- 9 Consultation with the UPSC should be mandatory only in cases leading to the proposed dismissal of government servants and all other types of disciplinary cases should be exempted from the UPSC's purview.

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE POLITICAL EXECUTIVE AND CIVIL SERVANTS

- 1 There is a need to safeguard the political neutrality and impartiality of the civil services.
- 2 The onus for this lies equally on the political executive and the civil services. This aspect should be included in the Code of Ethics for Ministers as well as the Code of Conduct for Public Servants.
- 3 The Commission would like to reiterate its recommendation made in its Report on "Ethics in Governance" while examining the definition of corruption under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988, wherein it has been recommended that "abuse of authority unduly favouring or harming someone" and "obstruction of justice" should be classified as an offence under the Act.

CIVIL SERVICES CODE

1 'Civil Services Values' and the 'Code of Ethics' should be incorporated in the proposed Civil Services Bill.

2 Conduct Rules for civil servants need to be redrawn based on the values and code of ethics.
