STATEHOOD FOR MANIPUR, TRIPURA & MEGHALAYA

NEW STATES AND UNION TERRITORIES CREATED AFTER 1956 MANIPUR, TRIPURA AND MEGHALAYA

- 1 In 1972, the political map of Northeast India underwent a major change.
- 2 Thus the two Union territories of Manipur and Tripura and the sub-state of Meghalaya got Statehood and the two Union territories of Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh (originally known as North-East Frontier Agency - NEFA) came into being.
- 3 With this number of States of the Indian Union increased to 21 (Manipur 19th, Tripura 20th and Meghalaya 21st).
- 4 Initially, the 22nd Constitutional Amendment Act (1969) created Meghalaya as an autonomous state or sub-state within the State of Assam with its own legislature and council of Ministers.
- 5 However, this did not satisfy the aspirations of the people of Meghalaya. The Union Territories of Mizoram and Arunachal Pradesh were also formed out of the Territories of Assam.

1975

SIKKIM BECAME PART OF INDIA

NEW STATES AND UNION TERRITORIES CREATED AFTER 1956 CASE OF SIKKIM AS A NEW STATE

The last Chogyal of Sikkim Palden Thondup Namgyal

- 1 During British days, Sikkim was an Indian State under hereditary monarch called Chogyal subject to British Paramountcy.
- 2 The Chogyal was a member of the Chamber of Princes.
- 3 When India became independent, there was a section of public opinion in Sikkim for merger with India, but the princely rule of that State and its strategic position stood in the way.

- 4 Hence after the lapse of the British Paramountcy, a treaty was entered into between the Sikkim and Government of India by which India undertook the responsibility with regard to the subjects of Defence, External Affairs and Communications of Sikkim.
- 5 Government of India was represented in Sikkim by a political officer, who was also assigned to Bhutan. Sikkim thus became a protectorate of the Union of India
- 6 In May 1974, the Sikkim's Congress decided to put an end to monarchical rule and the Sikkim Assembly passed the resolution for progressive realisation of freely responsible Government in Sikkim through the Sikkim Act 1974
- 7 This was done to seek participation and representation of people of Sikkim in the political institutions of India.

8 The Chogyal was made to give his assent to the Government of Sikkim Bill under which effective powers went into the hands of the representative Sikkim Assembly and the Chogyal was turned into normal Constitutional head.

9 Simultaneously, in India, the 35th Constitutional amendment Act was passed to give effect to this resolution.

- 10 The main provisions of this amendment were:
- 1) Sikkim will not be a part of India, but it will be an associate State.
 - 2) Sikkim would be entitled to send two representatives to the two houses of Parliament, whose rights and privilege would be the same as those of other members of Parliament except that the representatives of Sikkim would not be entitled to vote at the election of the President or Vice-President of India.
 - 3) The subjects of Defence, Communication, External Affairs and Social Welfare of Sikkim would be responsibility of the Government of India.
 - 4) The people of the Sikkim would have the right to admission to institutions for the higher education to the All India Services and the political institutions in India.
 - 5) The Government of Sikkim shall retain residual powers on all matters not provided for in the 10th Schedule of the Indian Constitution.

NEW STATES AND UNION TERRITORIES CREATED AFTER 1956 CASE OF SIKKIM AS A NEW STATE

11 There is little doubt that the 35th CAA introduced innovations into the original scheme of Constitution of India.

12 There was no room for any associate State under the Constitution of 1949.

13 India was a federal union of States, Union Territories and acquired territories.

14 Of course, Article 2 empowered the Parliament of India to admit new States into the Union, but the 35th Amendment Act did not seek to admit Sikkim as a new State of the Indian Union.

15 It was to be a territory associated with India and would have representatives in the Indian Parliament without being part of the territory of India.

16 While the Indian Parliament was enacting the 35th Amendment Act, the Chogyal resented and sort to invoke international intervention.

17 This provoked the progressive sections of the people of Sikkim and led to resolution by the Sikkim Assembly declaring that the activities of the Chogyal where prejudicial to the democratic aspirations of the people.

18 This resolution of the Assembly was submitted for a referendum to the people of Sikkim.

19 There was an overwhelming majority at the referendum and the Chief Minister of Sikkim urged the Government of India to implement the result of the referendum.

20 This led to the passing by the Indian Parliament, the 36th Constitutional Amendment Act, by which Sikkim has been admitted into the Union of India as a State by amending the 1st and the 4th Schedules of the Constitution.

21 Also Article 371 F has been inserted to make special provisions relating to the administration of Sikkim.

INCLUSION OF STATES OF MIZORAM, ARUNACHAL PRADESH AND GOA

NEW STATES AND UNION TERRITORIES CREATED AFTER 1956 MIZORAM, ARUNACHAL PRADESH AND GOA

- 1 In 1987, three new States of Mizoram, Arunachal Pradesh and Goa came into being as the 23rd, 24th and 25th States of the Indian Union respectively.
- 2 The Union Territory of Mizoram was conferred the status of a full State as a sequel to the signing of a memorandum of settlement (Mizoram Peace Accord) in 1986 between the Central Government and Mizo National Front, ending the two decade-old insurgency.
- 3 Arunachal Pradesh had also been a Union Territory from 1972.
- 4 The State of Goa was created by separating the territory of Goa from the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

2000

FORMATION OF UTTARAKHAND, CHHATTISGARH AND JHARKHAND

NEW STATES AND UNION TERRITORIES CREATED AFTER 1956

CHHATTISGARH, UTTARAKHAND AND JHARKHAND

1 In 2000, three more new states of Chattisgarh, Uttarakhand and Jharkhand were created out of the territories of Madhya Pradesh, Uttar Pradesh and Bihar respectively.

2 These became the 26th, 27th and 28th states of the Indian Union respectively.

SPLIT OF TELANGANA FROM ANDHRA PRADESH

NEW STATES AND UNION TERRITORIES CREATED AFTER 1956

TELANGANA

- 1 In 2014, the new State of Telangana came into existence as the 29th State of the Indian Union. It was carved out of the territories of Andhra Pradesh.
- 2 The Andhra State Act of 1953, formed the first linguistic State of India, known as the State of Andhra by taking out the Telugu speaking areas from the State of Madras (now Tamil Nadu).
- 3 Kurnool was the Capital of the so-formed Andhra State and the State High Court was established at Guntur.
- 4 The States reorganization Act of 1956 merged the Telugu speaking areas of Hyderabad State with the Andhra State to create the enlarged Andhra Pradesh state.
- 5 The capital of the state was shifted to Hyderabad.

NEW STATES AND UNION TERRITORIES CREATED AFTER 1956

TELANGANA

6 Again, the Andhra Pradesh Reorganisation Act of 2014 bifurcated the Andhra Pradesh in two separate states, namely, the Andhra Pradesh (residuary) and the Telangana.

7 Hyderabad is made the joint capital for both the States for a period of 10 years.

8 During, this period, the Andhra Pradesh should establish its own separate capital.

9 Similarly, the Andhra Pradesh High Court is renamed as Hyderabad High Court (High Court of Judicature at Hyderabad) and is made common for both the States till a separate High Court is set-up for the State of Andhra Pradesh.

Thus, the number of States and Union Territories increased from 14 and 6 in 1956 to 29 and 7 in 2014 respectively.

CHANGE OF NAMES

1 The names of some states and union territories have also been changed.

2 The United Provinces was the first state to have a new name. It was renamed 'Uttar Pradesh' in 1950.

4 In 1969, Madras was renamed 'Tamil Nadu'. Similarly, in 1973, Mysore was renamed 'Karnataka'.

5 In the same year, Laccadive, Minicoy and Aminidivi Islands were renamed 'Lakshadweep'.

6 In 1992, the Union Territory of Delhi was re-designated as the National Capital Territory of Delhi (without being conferred the status of a full-fledged state) by the 69th Constitutional Amendment, 1991.

1 In 2006, Uttaranchal was renamed as 'Uttarakhand'. In the same year, Pondicherry was renamed as 'Puducherry'. In 2011, Orissa was renamed as 'Odisha'.
