INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

ARTICLE 19

This is our Aim

NO to laissez-faire

NO to uncontrolled individual rights

Common Good more important

How to achieve a balance between individual rights and common good?

"CONSTITUTIONALISM"

WHAT DO YOU MEAN BY CONSTITUTIONALISM?

- The concept of constitutionalism is that of a polity governed by or under a constitution that ordains essentially limited government and rule of law as opposed to arbitrary authoritarian or totalitarian rule. Constitutional government, therefore, should necessarily be democratic government.
- In other words, Constitutionalism is a political philosophy in which the functions of government of a state must be in accordance with the provisions of the constitution meaning thereby the actions of government must reflect constitutionality.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION

ARTICLE 19

3

The State can impose reasonable restrictions on the exercise of the freedom of speech and expression on the grounds of

- sovereignty and integrity of India,
- security of the State,
- friendly relations with foreign States,
- public order, decency or morality,
- contempt, defamation and
- incitement to an offence.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY

ARTICLE 19

1 Every citizen has the right to assemble peaceably and without arms. It includes the right to hold public meetings, demonstrations and take out processions.

2 This freedom can be exercised only on public land and assembly must be peaceful and unarmed.

3 This provision does not protect violent, disorderly, riotous assemblies or one that causes breach of public peace or one that involves arms. This right does not include the Right to Strike.

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY

ARTICLE 19

SECTION 144 OF CrPC

- 4 The State can impose reasonable restrictions on the exercise of right of assembly on two grounds, namely,
- sovereignty and integrity of India and
 - public order including the maintenance of traffic in the area concerned.

- 5 Under Section 144 of Criminal Procedure Code (1973), a magistrate can restrain an assembly, meeting or procession if there is a risk of obstruction, annoyance or danger to human life, health or safety or a disturbance of the public tranquility or a riot or any affray.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY

ARTICLE 19

6

Under Section 141 of the Indian Penal Code, an assembly of five or more persons becomes unlawful if the object is

- a) To resist the execution of any law or legal process.
- b) To forcibly occupy the property of some person
- c) To commit any mischief or criminal trespass
- d) To force some person to do an illegal Act and
- e) To threaten the Government or its officials on exercising lawful powers.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE 19

- 1 All citizens have the right to form associations or unions or co-operative societies.
- 2 It includes the right to form political parties, companies, partnership firms, societies, clubs, organizations, trade unions or any body of persons.
- 3 It not only includes the right to start an association or union but also to continue with the association or union as such.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE 19

4 Further, it covers the negative right of not to form or join an association or union.

5 Reasonable restrictions can be imposed on the exercise of this rights by the State on the grounds of

- sovereignty and integrity of India,
- public order and morality.

6 Subject to these restrictions, the citizens have complete liberty to form associations or unions for pursuing lawful objectives and purposes.

FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE 19

SCOPE OF THE WORD
"INDUSTRY" IN INDUSTRIAL DISPUTES
ACT, 1947

7 However, the right to obtain recognition of the association is not a fundamental right.

8 The Supreme Court held that the trade unions have no guaranteed right to effective bargaining or right to strike or right to declare a lock-out.

9 The right to strike can be controlled by an appropriate industrial law.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT

ARTICLE 19

- 1 This freedom entitles every citizen to move freely throughout the territory of the country.
- 2 He can move freely from one State to another or from one place to another within a State.
- 3 This right underline the idea that India is one unit so far as the citizens are concerned.
- 4 Thus, purpose is to promote national feeling and not parochialism.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT

ARTICLE 19

5 The grounds of imposing reasonable restrictions on this freedom are two, namely,

- the interests of general public and
- protection of interests of any scheduled tribe.

6 The entry of outsiders in tribal areas is restricted to protect the distinctive culture, languages, customs, and manners of scheduled tribes and to safeguard their traditional vocation and properties against exploitation.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT

ARTICLE 19

7 The Supreme held that the freedom of movement of prostitutes can be restricted on the ground of public health and in the interest of public morals.

8 The Bombay High Court validated the restrictions on the movement of persons affected by AIDS.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT

ARTICLE 19

FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT

9 The freedom of movement has two dimensions, viz, internal (right to move inside the country) and external (right to move out of the country and right to come back to the country).

10 Article 19 protects only the first dimension. The second dimension is dealt by Article 21 (right to life and personal liberty).

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF RESIDENCE

ARTICLE 19

1 Every citizen has the right to reside and settle in any part of the Territory of the country.

2 This right has two parts

- a) The Right to reside in any part of the country, which means to stay at any place temporarily and
- b) The right to settle in any part of the country, which means to set up a home or domicile at any place permanently.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF RESIDENCE

ARTICLE 19

3 This right is intended to remove internal barriers within the country or between any of its parts.

4 This promotes nationalism and avoids narrow mindedness.

5 The State can impose reasonable restrictions on the exercise of this right on two grounds, namely,

- the interest of general public and
- protection of interest of any scheduled tribes.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF RESIDENCE

ARTICLE 19

6 The right of outsiders to reside and settle in tribal areas is restricted to protect the distinctive culture, language, customs and manners of scheduled tribes and to safeguard their traditional vocation and properties against exploitation.

7 In many parts of the country, the tribals have been permitted to regulate their property rights in accordance with their customary rules and laws.

8 The Supreme Court held that the certain areas can be banned for certain kinds of persons like prostitutes and habitual offenders.

From the above, it is clear that the right to residence and the right to movement are overlapping to some extent. Both are complementary to each other.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF PROFESSION

ARTICLE 19

- 1 All citizens are given the right to practise any profession or to carry on any occupation, trade or business.
- 2 This right is very wide as it covers all the means of earning one's livelihood.
- 3 The State can impose reasonable restrictions on the exercise of this right in the interest of the general public.

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF PROFESSION

ARTICLE 19

4

Further, the State is empowered to:

- a) Prescribe professional or technical qualifications necessary for practicing any profession or carrying on any occupation, trade or business and,
- b) Carry on by itself any trade, business, industry or service whether to the exclusion (complete or partial of citizens or otherwise).

INDIAN POLITY

FUNDAMENTAL RIGHTS

RIGHT TO FREEDOM

FREEDOM OF PROFESSION

ARTICLE 19

5 Thus, no objection can be made when the State carries on a trade, business, industry or service either as a monopoly (complete or partial) to the exclusion of citizens (all or some only) or in competition with any citizen. The State is not required to justify its monopoly.

6 This right does not include the right to carry on a profession or business or trade or occupation that is immoral (trafficking in women or children) or dangerous harmful drugs or explosive etc. The State can absolutely prohibit these or regulate them through licencing.
