HUMAN VALUES

MODULE - 13

LESSONS FROM THE LIVES OF PEOPLE

- No matter what price you need to pay, honouring your word is equivalent to worshipping the god within you.
- Lord Rama took every step in his life to be truthful and righteous following the path of righteousness (dharma).
- Rama's life is an example of being loyal to one's spouse, always.
- Being in the mortal form, Lord Rama lived a princely life till he grew up but he did not hesitate eating fruits already tasted by a poor old woman indicating the value of humbleness.
- Always be a gentle and compassionate human being.

- Truth triumphs.
- Unity can overcome any difficulty in life.
- Relationships are more valuable than money.
- Treat everyone equally.
- We should always keep good company.
- Forgiveness is greater than revenge.

- Krishna had a hobby or passion of playing flute even in difficult circumstances. Hobbies and passions can breathe new life into us when we're overwhelmed.
- Serving the mankind is akin to serving the god.
- Krishna's life was all about divine love. Selfless, unconditional love is to be practised.
- Even when one is bogged down by challenging circumstances, staying mindful and rooted in present can make things much easier.

LORD KRISHNA

“When a person responds to the sorrows and joys of others as if they were his own, he has attained the highest state of spiritual union.”

ETHICS, INTEGRITY & APTITUDE

LORD KRISHNA AND MAHABHARATA

- Everyone makes mistakes, sometimes terrible ones, but give space for other people to change. They might surprise us with their transformation.
- Stay humble no matter what: Krishna was always humble and showed respect to his elders — whether it was his parents or teachers.
- Happiness comes from within — our circumstances don't define us.
- Do not differentiate between people based on their upbringing or stature in society, treat everyone equally.

KRISHNA WITH KUCHELA

“Whatever happened was good, what’s happening, it’s going well, whatever will happen, will also be good. You need not have any regrets from the past. Do not worry for the future. Live in the present.”

ETHICS, INTEGRITY & APTITUDE

LORD KRISHNA AND MAHABHARATA

SHAKUNI

ABHIMANYU IN CHAKRAVYUHA

- A revengeful instinct can only lead to one's doom. Revenge consumes all, as seen in Shakuni's resolution to take revenge.
- Value the eternal bond of friendship.
- Incomplete knowledge can prove dangerous.
- Do not let yourself swayed by greed.
- We cannot give up on life despite all hurdles.
- Being a woman does not make you a lesser individual.
- Pride comes before the fall.

ETHICS, INTEGRITY & APTITUDE

LORD KRISHNA AND MAHABHARATA

ARJUNA'S FOCUS

DHRITARASHTRA

- Arjuna taught us how single-minded focus can help achieve one's goals.
- Dhritarashtra's actions taught us how one should not be blinded by love.
- Give freely, and fortune will smile upon you.
- Lifelong friendships are built upon respect and love: cherish friendships and you will always be surrounded by love and laughter.
- Krishna never panicked, come what may.

- Truth can never be concealed: it always reveals itself.
- Anger is a lethal weapon and it can even slay you.
- You, yourself, as much as anybody in the entire universe, deserve your love and affection.
- We are shaped by our thoughts; we become what we think. When the mind is pure, joy follows like a shadow that never leaves.
- Starting small is the mantra for finishing big. It doesn't matter if your start is a small attempt. If you keep at it steadily, you will achieve what you want to one day.

GAUTAMA BUDDHA

“There are only two mistakes one can make along the road to truth; not going all the way, and not starting.”

- Getting attached to a thing is the biggest mistake we can make in our lives.
- Believe nothing, no matter where you read it, or who said it unless it agrees with your own reason and your own common sense.
- Physical charms attract the eyes, goodness attracts the mind.
- Love nurtures a relationship but lust satisfies your physical needs.
- Life is one big journey and you're a traveller. It's better to live and travel well, than thinking about the future and losing your peace of mind.

GAUTAMA BUDDHA

“Anger will never disappear so long as thoughts of resentment are cherished in the mind. Anger will disappear just as soon as thoughts of resentment are forgotten.”

MAHAVIRA

- Mahavir's teachings stressed on the internal beauty and harmony of the soul.
- He held human life and positive attitude supreme.
- He valued nonviolence, truth, non-stealing, celibacy, and non-possession.
- A living body potentially has perfect perception, knowledge, power, and bliss.
- All living beings, irrespective of their size, shape, and form how spiritually developed or undeveloped, are equal and we should love and respect them.
- Do not worship gods and goddesses for material gains.

- Do not cause harm to any living beings
- Do speak the harmless truth only
- Do not take anything not properly given
- Do not indulge in sensual pleasure

LORD MAHAVIRA

“In happiness and suffering, in joy and grief, we should regard all creatures as we regard our own self.”

- Whoever wants to be great must become a servant.
- Live a worry free life, anxiety is a killer.
- Love Conquers All. Love even your enemies.
- Follow The Golden Rule: do as you want to be done.
- Do not judge others. Pointing one finger in the direction of another in judgment will have three pointing straight back at you.
- Practice the art of giving in secret.
- To forgive others is to free you from the disabling chains of unforgiveness.
- Sorry is sometimes the hardest word to say, but once said it is liberating.

JESUS CHRIST

“Do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Let the day’s own trouble be sufficient for today.”

- Use your words wisely and analyse the words that leave your lips.
- Nothing is impossible if you have faith.
- Always go the extra mile in your endeavours and pursue excellence in all your undertakings.
- Prove your worth through your works, not your words.
- Be persistent: When you are persistent, not only do you shake other people and even the heavens up.
- Let go of differences in denominations, religions, and beliefs.

JESUS CHRIST

“For what shall it profit a man, if he gain the whole world, and suffer the loss of his soul?”

- Learn to be truthful, honest and sincere every time.
- Be kind, gentle, patient and tolerant and spread knowledge.
- Do good always even to those who offended you, give charity to the poor and help the needy without expecting any material reward in return.
- Think beyond narrow borders.
- Do not let hardships distract you from your goal.
- Be humble and do not differentiate people.
- Be a role model to your followers.
- Respect the old, be caring towards the weak and loving towards the children.

MAKKAH MASJID

“The strong man is not the good wrestler; the strong man is only the one who controls himself when he is angry.”

PILGRIMS CIRCLING THE KAABA

- Always speak the truth
- Think beyond narrow borders
- Wish good
- Help and strengthen one another
- Do not be unfair
- Treat neighbours with kindness
- Be kind to every living being
- Do not criticize others
- Seek, learn and question
- Do good deeds (and smile)

- Never forget the poor: be kind to them and try your best to alleviate poverty.
- Do not use religion to segregate people into categories.
- He permitted women to join religious gatherings and openly sing their praises of God.
- Living as a householder was better than going away for a divine truth.
- Let go of the five evils — ego, anger, greed, attachment and lust.
- You need a mentor to guide you on how to live right.
- Living right is much superior to visiting pilgrimage destinations.

GURU NANAK

“Whatever kind of seed is sown in a field, prepared in due season, a plant of that same kind, marked with the peculiar qualities of the seed springs up in it.”

LANGAR AT AMRITSAR

- There is one god
- Equal rights for the woman
- Equality of all mankind
- Focus on & remember god
- Work hard in life
- Share with others
- Help others
- Protect the rights of others
- Be ever ready to sacrifice for others
- Be fearless
- Care for all humanity
- Live to the highest spiritual level
- Be gentle, act with humility

KAUTILYA

- Education is the best friend. An educated person is respected everywhere. Education beats the beauty and the youth.
- Learn from the mistakes of others as one can't live long enough to make them all oneself.
- Donate only to the people who deserve it.
- Before starting some work, always ask yourself three questions – why am I doing it, what the results might be and will I be successful.
- A person should always be good to others irrespective of differences in cultures or communities.

KAUTILYA

“I am thankful to those who left me because they taught me I can do it alone.”

A person will die but his goodness remains forever.

KAUTILYA

- One becomes great by one's deeds, not just by birth.
- Your humbleness may weaken your enemies at times and it will always keep you in self-control.
- A debt is like an enemy. As one should destroy his enemy without any trace, a debt should be paid till the penny.
- Learning is a friend on a journey, a wife in the house, medicine in sickness, and religious merit is the only friend after death.
- Actual knowledge is not confined in books and possessions. If it does, people can never use both of them when practically they need to use those.

KAUTILYA

“We should not fret for what is past nor should we be anxious about the future; men of discernment deal only with the present moment.”

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

- Develop the capacity to listen to different points of view.
- Acknowledge your errors, learn from them, and then move. A culture of learning in will thus be established.
- When there is success, share the credit with all of those involved.
- When mistakes are made stand up for you team and be ready to share the blame.
- Learn to control the emotions and channelize your anger and frustration towards better results.
- Understand the importance of relaxation and humour to shake of the stress of the day and replenish yourself for the challenges ahead.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

“Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power.”

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

- Be aware of your own weaknesses and strive to overcome them.
- When needed, go out into the field and manage directly rather than sitting in your office and issuing orders to subordinates.
- Define your larger goals after thorough perusal and then adhere to them, come what may.
- We can learn from his remarkable ability to communicate his goals to his countrymen. He made concepts simple and communicated with an understanding of the concerns of the citizens.
- He was firmly opposed to slavery and racial inequality.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

“Character is like a tree and reputation like a shadow. The shadow is what we think of it; the tree is the real thing.”
