

ETHICS, INTEGRITY & APTITUDE

HUMAN VALUES

MODULE - 14

LESSONS FROM THE LIVES OF PEOPLE

- If you have nothing you are willing to die for, you have nothing you are living for.
- Do not retaliate with physical violence.
- The power of a person's love and humanity awakens other people's consciences.
- Even the enemy must be loved.
- In spite of his belief in non-violence and love, he considered that "an injustice anywhere is an injustice everywhere" and had to be confronted.
- He believed that oppression of any part of the human family hurts the whole human family.
- Those who would stand up for justice must be willing to endure hardships for its sake.
- Eventually right will prevail because the universe is founded upon justice.

He valued: Courage, Non-violence, Love, Justice, Community, Suffering and Sacrifice, Human dignity, Forgiveness and Faith

"The time is always right to do what is right."

NELSON MANDELA

- He hoped to live for and even prepared to die for the ideal of a democratic and free society and taught us to never ever give up.
- Our failures, not successes, speak volumes about our character.
- Respect and learn from divergent viewpoints.
- A concern for others in our individual and community lives would make the world the better place.
- Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.
- Difficulties break some men but make others, be in the second category.
- It always seems impossible until it's done.

He valued: Leadership, Freedom, Courage, Education and Compassion.

NELSON MANDELA

“It is better to lead from behind and to put others in front, especially when you celebrate victory. You take the frontline when there is danger. Then people will appreciate your leadership”

- Speak as little as possible about yourself.
- Keep busy with your own affairs, not those of others.
- Avoid unnecessary curiosity into other people's lives.
- Accept small irritations with good humor and cheerful nature.
- Do not dwell on the faults of others.
- Accept censures even if unmerited.
- Be courteous and delicate even when provoked.
- Do not seek to be admired or loved.
- Do not protect yourself behind your own dignity.
- Always choose the more difficult one of the given tasks.

MOTHER TERESA

“Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless.”

- In order to see your dreams come true, you first need to have a dream to pursue. It is essentially required for one to possess the dream.
- He firmly believed that the father, the mother and the teacher have a humungous role to play in making a difference to the nation.
- Build courage to think differently, invent, travel the unexplored path, discover the impossible and to overcome problems.
- The mantra for success is single-minded devotion to the goal: To be devoted, is to bear fruits of success.
- A leader must have vision and passion and he must not be afraid of obstacles that will inevitably cross his path.

A P J ABDUL KALAM

“Where there is righteousness in the heart, there is beauty in the character. When there is beauty in the character, there is harmony in the home. When there is harmony in the home, there is order in the nation. When there is order in the nation, there is peace in the world.”

- Never give up even if you continually fail in your efforts. It is through difficulties and failure that one truly enjoys the fruits of his labour.
- The whole universe is with us on the road to success, and it brings the best to people who chase their dreams.
- He propagated building of a better tomorrow for our next generations, even at the cost of sacrificing today.
- God only helps those who work hard towards achieving their goal, and not someone who broods over his life doing nothing.

- He valued: Honesty, Self-discipline, Patriotism, Secularism, Gratitude, Courage, Reliability, Kindness, Sincerity and Impartiality.

- You must have dreams.
- The three keys to a corruption-free country (father, mother and teacher) must play their part.
- Have courage to think differently.
- Devotion is necessary.
- A leader must be visionary and passionate.
- Difficulties help you enjoy success.
- The whole universe works to give you the best.
- A better tomorrow comes from today.

SUMMARY

- Money is like manure, which stinks when you pile it but grows when you spread it.
- Uncommon thinkers reuse what common thinkers refuse.
- Most of our troubles are due to poor implementation, wrong priorities and unattainable targets.
- Good human relations not only bring great personal rewards but are essential to the success of any enterprise.
- Nothing worthwhile is ever achieved without deep thought and hard work.
- To be a leader, you have got to lead human beings with affection.
- Place a premium on happiness, not power or money.

J R D TATA

"When you work, work as if everything depends on you. When you pray, pray as if everything depends on God."

- Productivity and efficiency can be achieved only step by step with sustained hard work, relentless attention to details and insistence on the highest standards of quality and performance.
- Always aim at perfection for only then will you achieve excellence.
- No success or achievement in material terms is worthwhile unless it serves the needs or interests of the country and its people and is achieved by fair and honest means.
- Get along with individuals, according to their ways and characteristics, even if you have to suppress yourself.
- Being humble costs nothing.

HIS VALUES

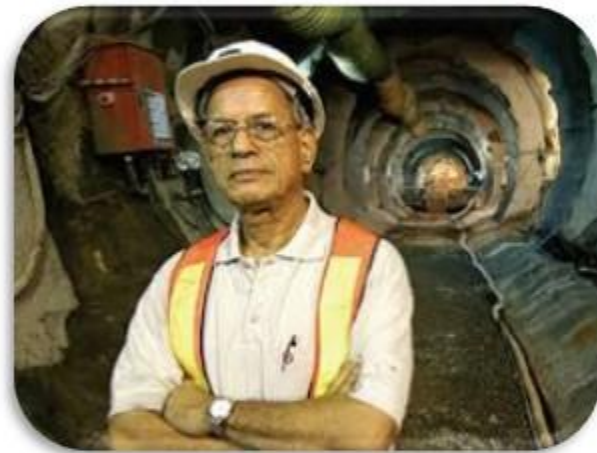

Discipline, Love, Dreaming big, Strategy, Country, Diversity, Prompt decision making, Talent development, Physical Fitness and Integrity

“Never start with diffidence, Always start with confidence.”

- Your vision should not be limited by convention or expectations.
- Be perseverant, focused on goals and prepared for maximum resistance.
- A person in a responsible position must religiously follow the rules critical to establishing the organisation's rules, regulations and values.
- Be always in the loop of the goings on of the organisation, and be approachable for everyone who works with you.
- Do not bask in limited success, shift the goal posts and demand more of yourself and your team.

E SREEDHARAN

"I don't know why some bureaucrats are not able to function. They should have the courage to stand up to their convictions and take decisions and not leave everything to the politicians."

- Integrity is priority and non-negotiable for the individual and the organisation. To achieve this, put ethics high up on your goals list and devise strong structures and procedures for every activity to keep employees on the ethical path.
- When the time period is short, prioritise to keep confusion out of execution. Keep the to-do list short.
- Think Bigger than what is visible or obvious. For example, a bridge is just a bridge till you envision it as a state-of-the-art engineering wonder.

E SREEDHARAN

He values family life and is involved in every small decision that is taken, paying attention to even the smallest needs of his grandchildren.

- If an idea draws you, be prepared to stay the course and work towards realising the idea.
- Learn from others: He learned from the then chairman, Mr Tribhuvandasbhai Patel, a man of extraordinary wisdom, ability and integrity.
- Fuse your talent, intelligence and energy together, and be a team player.
- A leader must be able to make his/her vision the vision of the team as well by providing quality leadership.
- Be prepared to overcome the bureaucratic barriers and obstacles with tenacity.
- Act with courage when faced with those who oppose the interests of our nation and its farmers.

VERGHESE KURIEN

“For those who believe, no explanation is necessary; for those who do not, no explanation is possible.”

- In order to succeed, our integrity must be beyond reproach. Because the adversaries cannot successfully defeat an honest man.
- Convert threats into opportunities — never let an opportunity to pass you by that could be of advantage to the organisation or those it served.
- He was demanding, set very high standards, had his own unique style of training and believed that there was no better way of developing people than giving them greater and bigger responsibilities to shoulder.

Initially he desperately wanted to leave as soon as possible from Anand, but attracted by the idea of milk producers cooperating to build a better life, he stayed there his life time!

VERGHESE KURIEN

“I realised, in all humility, that choosing to lead one kind of life means putting aside the desire to pursue other option.”

- Passion, commitment and focused work can bring your goal closer to you.
- It is due to his pioneering efforts that our country transformed from a ship-to-mouth existence to one of the leading producers and exporters of food grains in the world.
- Never hesitate to collaborate with others to fulfill your larger goals.
- He advocated sustainable agriculture leading to an ever-green revolution.
- By sheer grit and determination, he achieved what he had dreamt for India.
- Welfare of the country depends on the welfare of the farming community.

M S SWAMINATHAN

“If agriculture goes wrong, nothing else will have a chance to go right in the country.”

- Never let the financial difficulties let you stop pursuing your education.
- Be ingenious and innovative with the solutions you come up with to solve problems.
- Seemingly daunting tasks can be achieved with focus and dedication.
- Never allow your personal relationships get in way of your integrity at work.
- Be honest: He used the Government car for government work; for his private work he used his own car.
- Work steadily and methodically.
- Take decisions only after deliberating with all the concerned stake holders

M VISVESARAYYA TAMED HYDERABAD FLOODS

“Work performed with higher knowledge or skill, capacity or ambition, usually brings a correspondingly higher reward.”

- Education is to be valued. He was instrumental in setting up of Mysore University.
- Be eager to learn new things: He was always eager to learn new things.
- He was the embodiment of discipline and hard work. He was never late by a minute and he never wasted a minute.
- Every man should understand his responsibility and do his best.
- He had the courage of his convictions: He did what he thought was right and was not afraid of opposition.
- He was a modest person and a fearless patriot.

M VISVESARAYYA

“Remember, your work may be only to sweep a railway crossing, but it is your duty to keep it so clean that no other crossing in the world is as clean as yours.”

- Don't stop at initial success. Keep dreaming and work towards realizing the dream.
- Create the future you want by planning, innovation and determination.
- Be personally invested in the mission you are championing.
- Do yourself whatever you want others to do.
- Every successful journey must include rest and reflection. Look back on your achievements and enable them to boost you even higher.
- Always factor others into your dreams. Have the courage and determination to make those dreams happen.
- Shrug off adversity, reach higher, and never forget about the welfare of others.

KAILASH SATYARTHI

“I refuse to accept that the shackles of slavery can ever be stronger than the quest for freedom.”

- As an IAS officer, he played a crucial role in creating pro-poor policies.
- He was known for his diligent efforts in bringing landmark policies like the 'Abolition of Bonded Labour Act' and the 'Land Distribution Act' to the fore.
- He remained unmarried so that he could serve the society and also contributed to the education of over 500 poor students.
- Even after his retirement, he lent his weight to the non-profit organisation, Safai Karmachari Andolan, and helped free a majority of the manual labourers in the undivided Andhra Pradesh handling human excreta.

He is, justifiably, called a "people's man".

S R SANKARAN

He did not let his retirement come in the way of serving the destitute and made use of the existing provisions to write letters to every single collector in India, making them aware of manual scavenging and asking for their intervention to break down dry latrines.

SATYENDRA DUBEY

- An Indian Engineering Services (IES) officer, he was Project Director with NHAI at Koderma in Jharkhand, working on the Golden Quadrilateral Project.
- Known for his work ethics, he showed dedication and extraordinary courage in exposing serious financial irregularities and exposed many corrupt practices in the industry. He also made many contractors rebuild the poor quality roads.
- He wrote a letter to then PM Atal Bihari Vajpayee exposing the corruption and financial irregularities in the project. His identity was revealed leading to his killing.

SHANMUGAM MANJUNATH

- A sales manager with Indian Oil Corporation, he worked actively to stop selling of adulterated fuel.
- His courageous nature and honesty made him a commendable officer.
- He paid the price for being honest man, while he was on his way to exposing two petrol pumps selling adulterated fuel in Lucknow. He ordered them sealed, and when they started working again, he conducted a surprise raid.
- He was shot dead the same night and his bullet ridden body was found in his own car's backseat.

NARENDRA KUMAR

- An IPS officer, he was posted in Bihar and Ujjain before joining office in Morena, Madhya Pradesh.
