

MODERN INDIAN HISTORY

MODULE - 26

MILITANT NATIONALISM

INDIAN NATIONAL MOVEMENT

	MODERATE PHASE	EXTREMIST PHASE	GANDHIAN PHASE
IDEOLOGY	Constitutionalism	Radicalism	Gandhian
METHODOLOGY	Prayer Petition, Protest	Passive Resistance	Non-Violence – “Satyagraha”
OBJECTIVE	Swaraj- Dominion Status	Swaraj-Self-Rule	Complete Independence
SOCIAL BASE/ OUTREACH	ELITE	MIDDLE CLASS	MASSES

EXTREMIST PHASE

ATTITUDE OF EXTREMISTS

Their political struggle was associated with religious revivalism. They evoked cultural festival, idealized Indian past.

Believed in capacity of masses to sustain a prolonged movement. They had belief that repression of the British would not thwarted be zealous attitude of masses, rather it would strengthen patriotic feeling.

They did not believe in British rule- they saw it as exploitative and repressive. They rejected the claim that European civilization was superior to that of Asia and African civilization. They rejected European culture to be ideal human culture. They drew inspiration from greatness of Indian culture.

ATTITUDE OF EXTREMIST

They believed in extra-constitutional means and methods in political struggle. They introduced new political instruments -swadeshi, boycott, passive resistance, mass agitation.

They did not look to British as political guide. The leaders were inspired by revivalist movements-

- Arya Samaj
- Theosophical society
- New Vedantism - Ramakrishna and Vivekananda

They focused on assertion of rights. The idea of self-respect, self-confidence was put at highest pedestal. They believed in their own strength and self sacrifice.

EXTREMIST PHASE

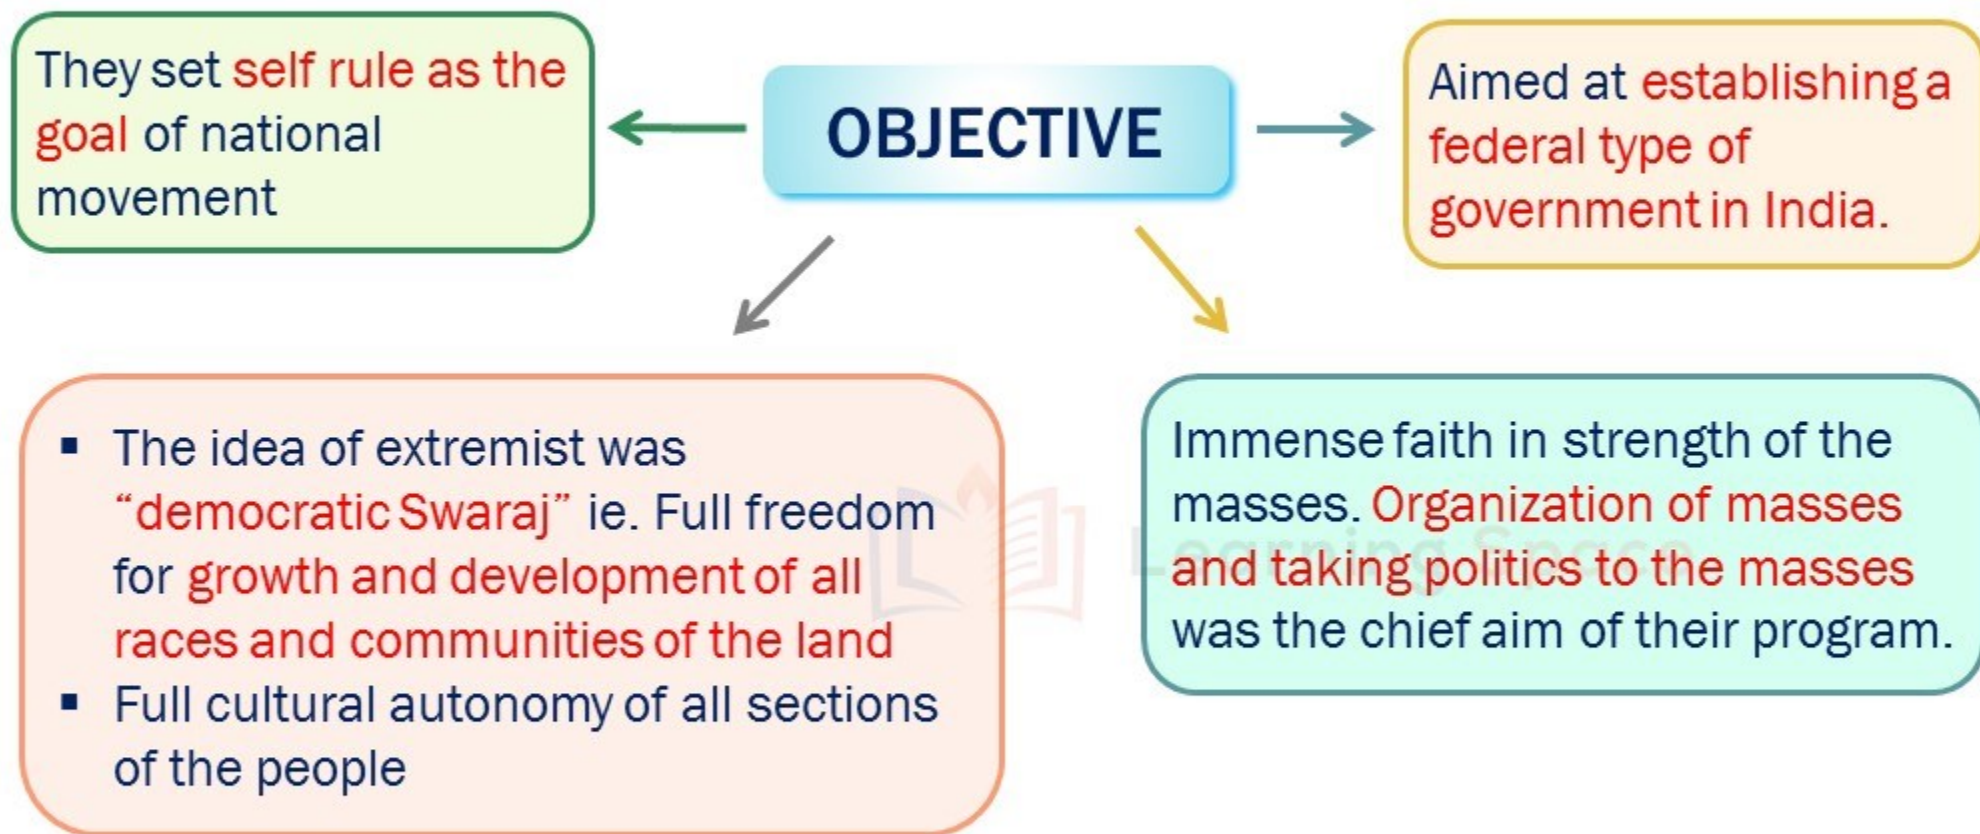

IDEOLOGY OF EXTREMISTS

The thesis that British rule was a blessing to the country was against their very basic doctrine

EXTREMIST PHASE

OBJECTIVES OF EXTREMISTS

Extremist were more democratic, egalitarian, non-sectarian and Indianized in outlook. They are mostly non-violent and secular in character.

EXTREMIST PHASE

METHODS OF EXTREMISTS

They advocated and adopted the method of passive resistance means refusing to do anything in organized way thereby making the administration impossible.

NEGATIVE ASPECTS

- Boycott of foreign goods,
- Boycott of British courts and justice system,
- Boycott of schools and colleges.
- If the government did not listen, it may extend to non-payment to taxes.

POSITIVE ASPECT

- Aimed at organizing the civil life of people independent of government help and control.
- Program included organization of villages,
- Setting up panchayat for administration of justice,
- Schools and colleges for public education

EXTREMIST PHASE

ORIGIN AND GROWTH OF MILITARISTIC TREND

A radical trend to political activity started emerging in 1890's and took a concrete shape by 1905.

BAL GANGADHAR TILAK

Was the first Indian political leader who emphasised on extremist ideology.

- Sincere faith in glory and greatness of Indian culture.
- Believed in awakening of political consciousness and need to political agitation among masses.
- Clear goal of India was Swaraj not reforms in administration

Opposed age of Consent Act 1891, that raised the marriageable age , not because they are against reforms but because extremist was against British interference in Indian socio-cultural matter.

Reviving Ganapati festival and inauguration of Shivaji festival are the memorable contribution of Tilak in building and development of Indian nationalism

Ganapati festival-

- First started in 1893
- It was a old religious institution of Maharashtra.
- Tilak transformed it into national movement and gave it political character by
 - ✓ Organising lectures
 - ✓ Processions
 - ✓ Singing song
 - ✓ Community meal
- It appealed instinctively to all classes of people and a platform for Hindus to stand together and discharge their joint national duty.

Shivaji festival- “National hero worship”

- First festival was held in Raigarh 1895
- It aroused national pride and enthusiasm of Maharashtrian people. It instilled national sentiments among people.
- Fiery speeches were delivered
- Act of Shivaji killing of Afzal khan was justified as unselfish act for national self preservation or nations interest.
- In 1897, when festival was celebrated at Pune, Chapakar brother murdered Plague commissioner.
- Tilak was held responsible and was jailed for 18 months for sedition.

SHIFT FROM PACIFIST NATIONALISM TO MILITANT NATIONALISM

*This added to the already simmering discontent among the more radical nationalists
Politically conscious people were disillusioned and looking for more effective mode of political action*

EXTREMIST PHASE

SHIFT FROM PACIFIST NATIONALISM TO MILITANT NATIONALISM

1

RECOGNITION OF TRUE NATURE OF BRITISH

Exploitative rule and indifference attitude towards Indians

- Economic miseries of 1890's.
- Severe famine killing 90 lakh people between 1896-1900
- Bubonic plague in Deccan

Not conceding demands of Indians.

- Indian councils act 1892 did not address Indian demand
- It disappointed those hoping for changes on large scale.

Instead of giving more rights British rule was taking away even the existing rights from Indians

- Repressive laws under 124A and 153A of IPC.
- Official secrets act 1904 to curb the freedom of press
- Indian universities act, 1904 to have greater control over universities.

British rule was no longer progressive

Instead of spreading mass and technical education British were suppressing it.

All these made Indian anxious and dissatisfied with colonial rule

BUBONIC PLAGUE IN DECCAN

BUBONIC PLAGUE

It is caused by bacterium. It's named after the swollen lymph nodes (buboes).

- In 1896, Bubonic plague spread rapidly in the Bombay Presidency
- The government had decided to take drastic action.
- Plague commissioner was appointed under the command of Mr. W.C Rand and Lieutenant Ayerst.
- On the order of commissioner the soldiers started house searching and isolating those affected by plague.
- The people got irked by this way of the Government's suppression of the disease.

-
- The result was that these two officers were shot dead by Pune youngsters, Chapekar brothers.
 - Damodar Chapekar, Balkrishna Chapekar and Vasudev Chapekar were hanged.
 - 2 brothers, Sardar Natus, were deported without trial
 - Many journalist including Tilak were charged of sedition
 - Section 124A was stiffened to increase the power of the government.

INDIAN PRESS REFORMS

JOURNEY OF INDIAN PRESS

2 SECTIONS WERE ADDED TO IPC

SECTION 124A OF IPC, 1870

Anyone trying to cause disaffection against British Government in India was to be transported for life or for any term or imprisoned up to three years.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

SECTION 153A OF IPC, 1898

It made a criminal offence for anyone to bring into contempt the Government of India or to create hatred among different classes

SHIFT FROM PACIFIST NATIONALISM TO MILITANT NATIONALISM2*REACTIONARY POLICIES OF CURZON*HAWKISH POLICY OF CURZON*INSULTING INDIANS

Calling nationalist activists as "letting off of gas"

Posing derogatory comments

Costly Darbars amidst of divesting famines

Tibet expedition at the cost of Indian revenues

REPRESSIVE ACTS

Calcutta Corporation Act,
1899

Official Secrets Act, 1904

Indian Universities Act, 1904

Partition of Bengal Act, 1905

EXTREMIST PHASE

SHIFT FROM PACIFIST NATIONALISM TO MILITANT NATIONALISM

3

DISSATISFACTION WITH ACHIEVEMENTS OF AS WELL AS METHODS OF MODERATES

Moderate leaders were mostly educated in English and drew inspiration mainly from western political thought which became the reason for disconnect with the masses.

Younger elements within Congress criticised methods of peaceful & constitutional agitation.

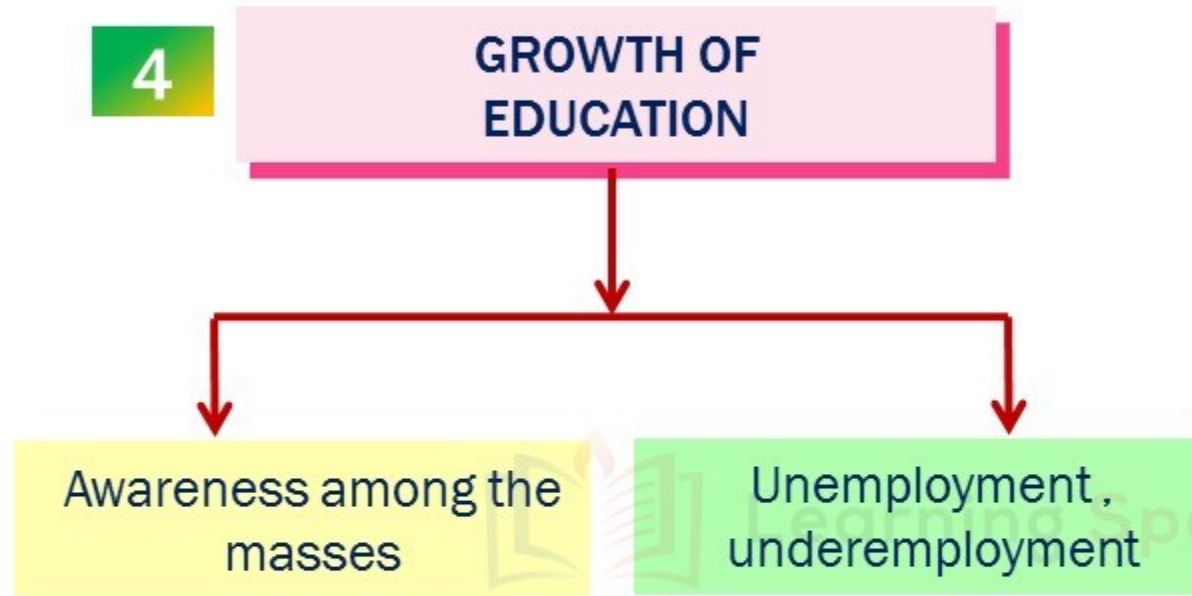

Method of 3P's

- ✓ Prayer
- ✓ Protest
- ✓ Petition

This was described by younger elements as "Political mendicancy"

EXTREMIST PHASE

SHIFT FROM PACIFIST NATIONALISM TO MILITANT NATIONALISM

Leading to discontentment among the people and increasing the trend of radical nationalism

SHIFT FROM PACIFIST NATIONALISM TO MILITANT NATIONALISM5*REACTION TO INCREASING WESTERNISATION

Intellectuals like

- Vivekananda,
- Bakim Chandra Chatterjee,
- Swami Dayananda Saraswathi ("India for the Indians")

Highlighted India's glorious past & portrayed brighter side of Indian culture removing the myth of white superiority

Took excessive westernization as a threat to National identity and loss to Indian culture.

6INTERNATIONAL INFLUENCES

Demolished the myth of white / European supremacy

Emergence of Japan as an industrial power – An Asian Country.

Ethiopia victory over Italy (1896)

Boer wars (1893-1902) in which British faced severe defeat.

Japan's victory over Russia (1905)

Nationalist movements in Ireland, Russia, Egypt, China-
Made Indians more confident and gave them a ray of hope to stand against British.

EXTREMIST PHASE

SHIFT FROM PACIFIST NATIONALISM TO MILITANT NATIONALISM

7

EXISTENCE OF MILITANT SCHOOL OF THOUGHT & EMERGENCE OF MILITANT LEADERS

BENGAL

Raj Narain Bose
Ashwini Kumar Dutta
Aurobindo Ghosh
Bipin Chandra Pal

MAHARASHTRA

Vishnu Shastri Chiplunkar
Bal Gangadhar Tilak

PUNJAB

Lala Lajpat Rai

They believed in radical means and radical ends.

EXTREMIST PHASE

EXTREMISTS LEADERS

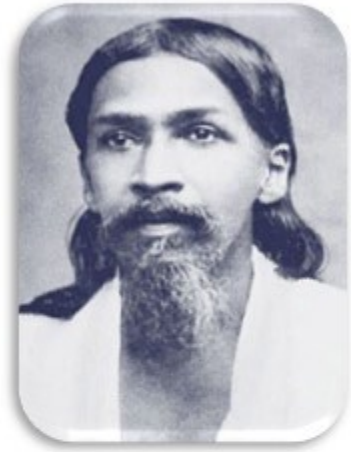

LALA LAJPAT
RAI

BAL GANGADHAR
TILAK

BIPIN CHANDRA
PAL

AUROBINDO
GHOSH

VISHNU SHASTRI
CH IPLUNKAR

RAJ NARAIN
BOSE

ASHWINI
KUMAR DUTTA

SHIFT FROM PACIFIST NATIONALISM TO MILITANT NATIONALISM

*This added to the already simmering discontent among the more radical nationalists
Politically conscious people were disillusioned and looking for more effective mode of political action*

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN EXTREMISTS AND MODERATE

MODERATES

- 1 Social base—Zamindars and upper middle classes in towns.
- 2 Ideological inspiration— western liberal thought and European history.
- 3 Believed in England's providential mission in India.
- 4 Believed political connections with Britain to be in India's social, political and cultural interests.
- 5 Professed loyalty to the British Crown.

EXTREMISTS

- 1 Social base—educated middle and lower middle classes in towns.
- 2 Ideological inspiration— Indian history, cultural heritage and Hindu traditional symbols.
- 3 Rejected 'providential mission theory' as an illusion.
- 4 Believed that political connections with Britain would perpetuate British exploitation of India.
- 5 Believed that the British Crown was unworthy of claiming Indian loyalty.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN EXTREMISTS AND MODERATE

MODERATES

- 6 Believed that the movement should be limited to middle class intelligentsia; masses not yet ready for participation in political work.
- 7 Demanded constitutional reforms and share for Indians in services.
- 8 Insisted on the use of constitutional methods only.
- 9 They were patriots and did not play the role of a comprador class.

EXTREMISTS

- 6 Had immense faith in the capacity of masses to participate and to make sacrifices.
- 7 Demanded swaraj as the panacea for Indian ills.
- 8 Did not hesitate to use extra constitutional methods like boycott and passive resistance to achieve their objectives.
- 9 They were patriots who made sacrifices for the sake of the country.

WE EXPRESS OUR SINCERE THANKS FOR VIEWING THIS VIDEO

Presented by

Learning Space

For Suggestions:

suggestions@learningspace.in

To Contact us:

info@learningspace.in

OUR TEAM

G. V. Rao

L. V. Krishna

Y. Deepthi

Y. Prema Manvi

S. Manoj Kumar

Mayank Chaudhary

D. Shruti Reddy

G. Ravi Babu

K. Victor Babu

D. Joji

Visit us at:

www.learningspacedigital.com

0 8 6 6 -2 4 4 4 4 7 2

0 9 8 4 9 9 4 2 2 9 9