ADMINISTRATIVE SYSTEM UNDER CROWN RULE

INDIAN COUNCILS ACT -1909

BACKGROUND

LORD MORLEY
SECRETARY OF STATE

LORD MINTO- II
VICEROY

Moderates as well as Muslim league
(Shimla deputation)
were demanding constitutional reforms

1908- British parliament appointed a royal commission

- To enquire into relation between government of India and the province.
- To suggest ways and means to simplify and improve them

The idea of reform was suggested by Morley and Minto in 1909 which came to be known as Indian council Act of 1909. The idea was to give locals some more power in the legislative affairs also a provision was made for the expansion of legislative councils.

INDIAN COUNCIL ACT OF 1909

1909 reforms were just a shadow not a substance

EVALUATION OF INDIAN COUNCIL ACT OF 1909

Rejected self-Government on the ground that colonial self-Government was not suitable for India

Parliamentary system was introduced but no responsible Government

Separate electorate system- it sowed the seeds of communalism.

Indirect election as no connection between the primary voter and his representative.

- Executive council are responsible only to British parliament not to legislature council.
- Narrow franchises, indirect elections, limited powers of the Legislative Councils show a complete irresponsible government

Idea was to establish that interests of the Hindus and Muslims were distinct.

In such a situation, the political participation, awareness and education remained a distant dream.

FORMATION OF ALL INDIA MUSLIM LEAGUE(1906)

SHIMLA DEPUTATION, 1906

The Shimla Deputation was a factor that made Muslims feel a need for their own political party. It can rightly be called the first real political step towards a separate homeland.

AGA KHAN

On 8 October 1906 a deputation of prominent Muslims led by Aga Khan visited Viceroy Minto at Shimla to present their demands.

The demands were set out in what has become known as 'The Shimla Deputation'.

The demands were

- that in all local and provincial elections there should be separate electorate for Muslims
- Muslims in all councils should have a higher percentage of seats than their percentage of the India population.

EVENTS DURING 1905-1910

FORMATION OF ALL INDIA MUSLIM LEAGUE(1906)

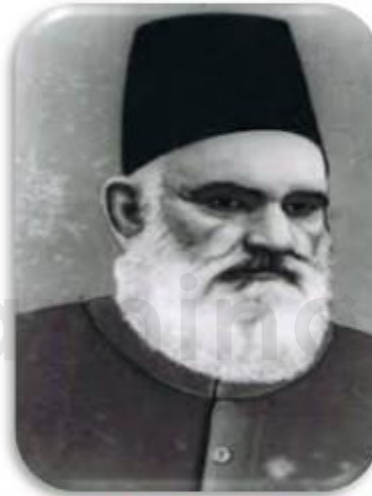

On 30 December 1906, the All-India Muslim League was set up at Dacca under the leadership of Aga Khan, Nawab Salimullah Khan of Dacca and Nawab Mohsin-ul Mulk.

NAWAB SALIMULLAH KHAN

NAWAB MOHSIN-UL MULK

DEMANDS-

They raised the slogan of separate Muslim interest

Demanded the special safeguards for its community in government services

Separate electorate for Muslims.

Under Lord Minto, a branch of Muslim League was established at London by Amir Ali.

- British started encouraging these Muslim reactionary elements to counter congress.
- The League supported the Partition of Bengal as Muslim would be in majority in east Bengal.
- 1913, Mohammad Ali Jinnah joined the All India Muslim League.

SHIMLA DEPUTATION, 1906

Q.2 WHY DID THE MUSLIMS OF THE SUBCONTINENT FEEL A NEED FOR A SEPARATE POLITICAL PARTY?

Muslim felt that INC within years turned out to be a Hindu dominated body. It was only working for Hindu interests neglecting other communities.

In 1905 when Bengal was partitioned, Congress was against it and immediately demanded for its reversal. Muslims were disappointed at this Congress demanded competitive examination to be held for government jobs. Since most of the Muslims were uneducated, they were unable to pass them.

Congress also felt that there was no need for separate electorates for Muslims as India was a cultural whole.

On the ground of language, Hindi-Urdu Controversy was another major cause

The role of Hindu extremist groups like Arya Samaj was another factor which aroused Muslim attention. These extremist played loud music outside mosques which was disgraceful and offensive. They also banned the slaughter of cows. Not only this these groups also wanted Muslims to be forcibly converted to Hinduism.

These anti- Muslims activities increased the need of a political platform for the Muslims. On 8 October 1906, group of Muslims leaders led by the Aga Khan met Viceroy Minto at Shimla to present their demands. The success of Shimla Deputation eventually led to the formation of the 'All India Muslim League' in 1906.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA ACT - 1919

On August 20, 1917 Montagu made a statement famously known as the August Declaration of 1917. He discussed the issue of constitutional reform with Chelmsford. They presented their report in 1918 known as Montagu-Chelmsford reform. The British parliament enacted GOI Act 1919 based on this report.

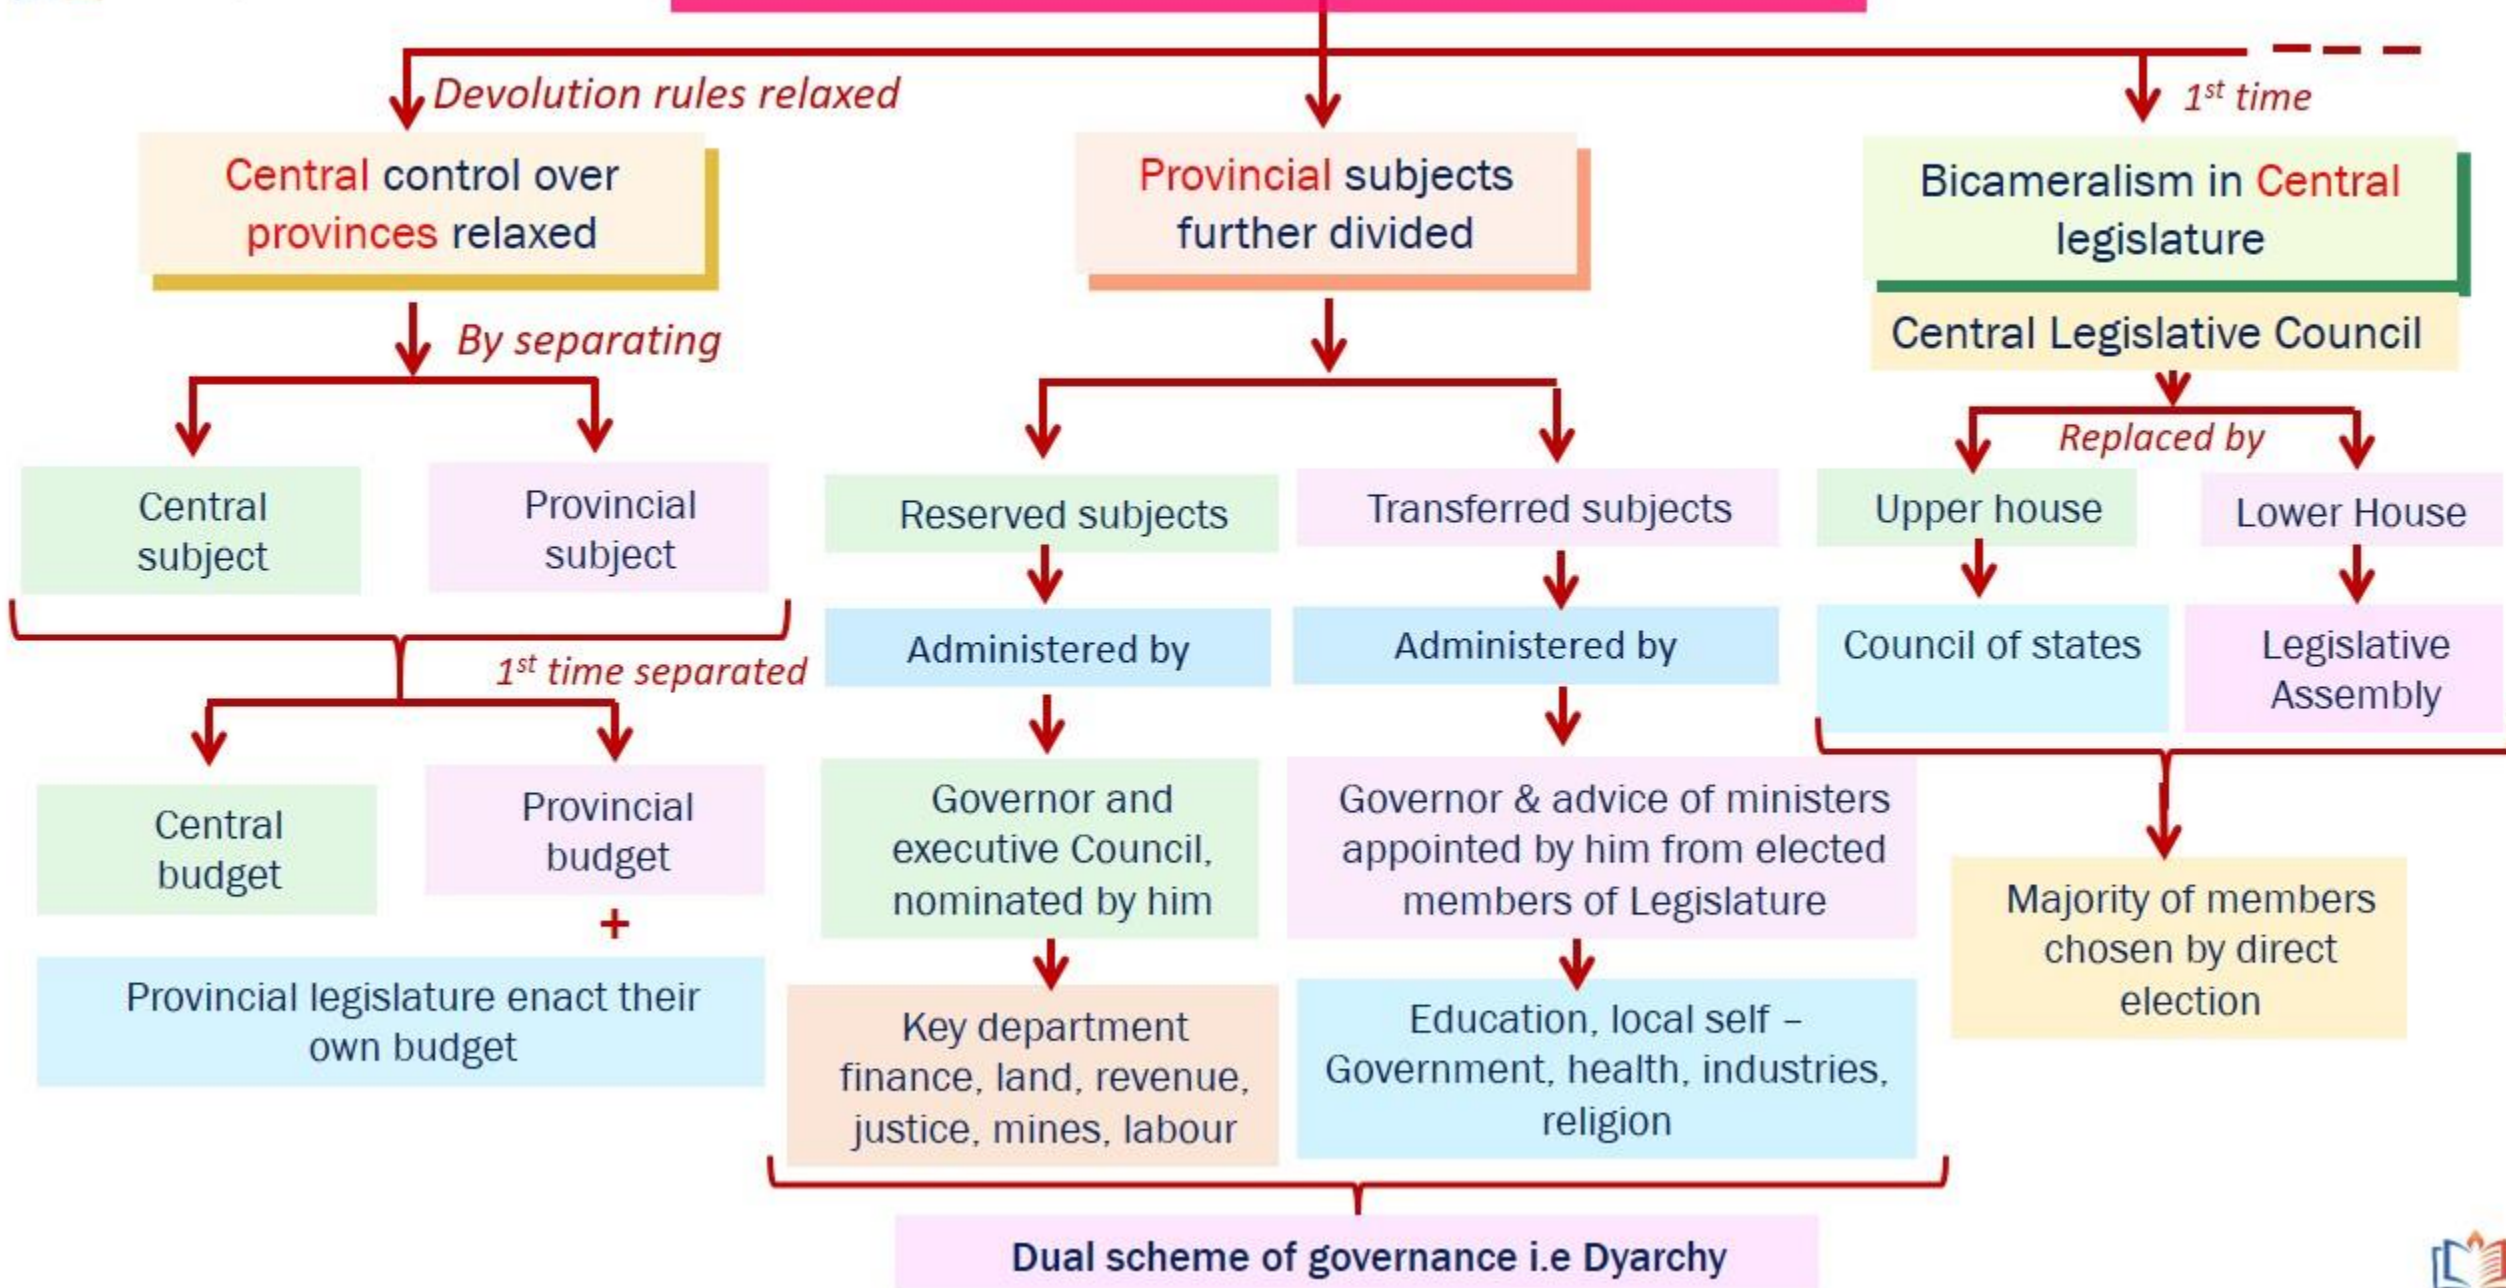

EDWIN SAMUEL MONTAGU

The statement said:
“Government policy is of an increasing participation of Indians in every branch of administration and gradual development of self-governing institutions with a view to progressive realization of responsible government in India as an integral part of British Empire.”

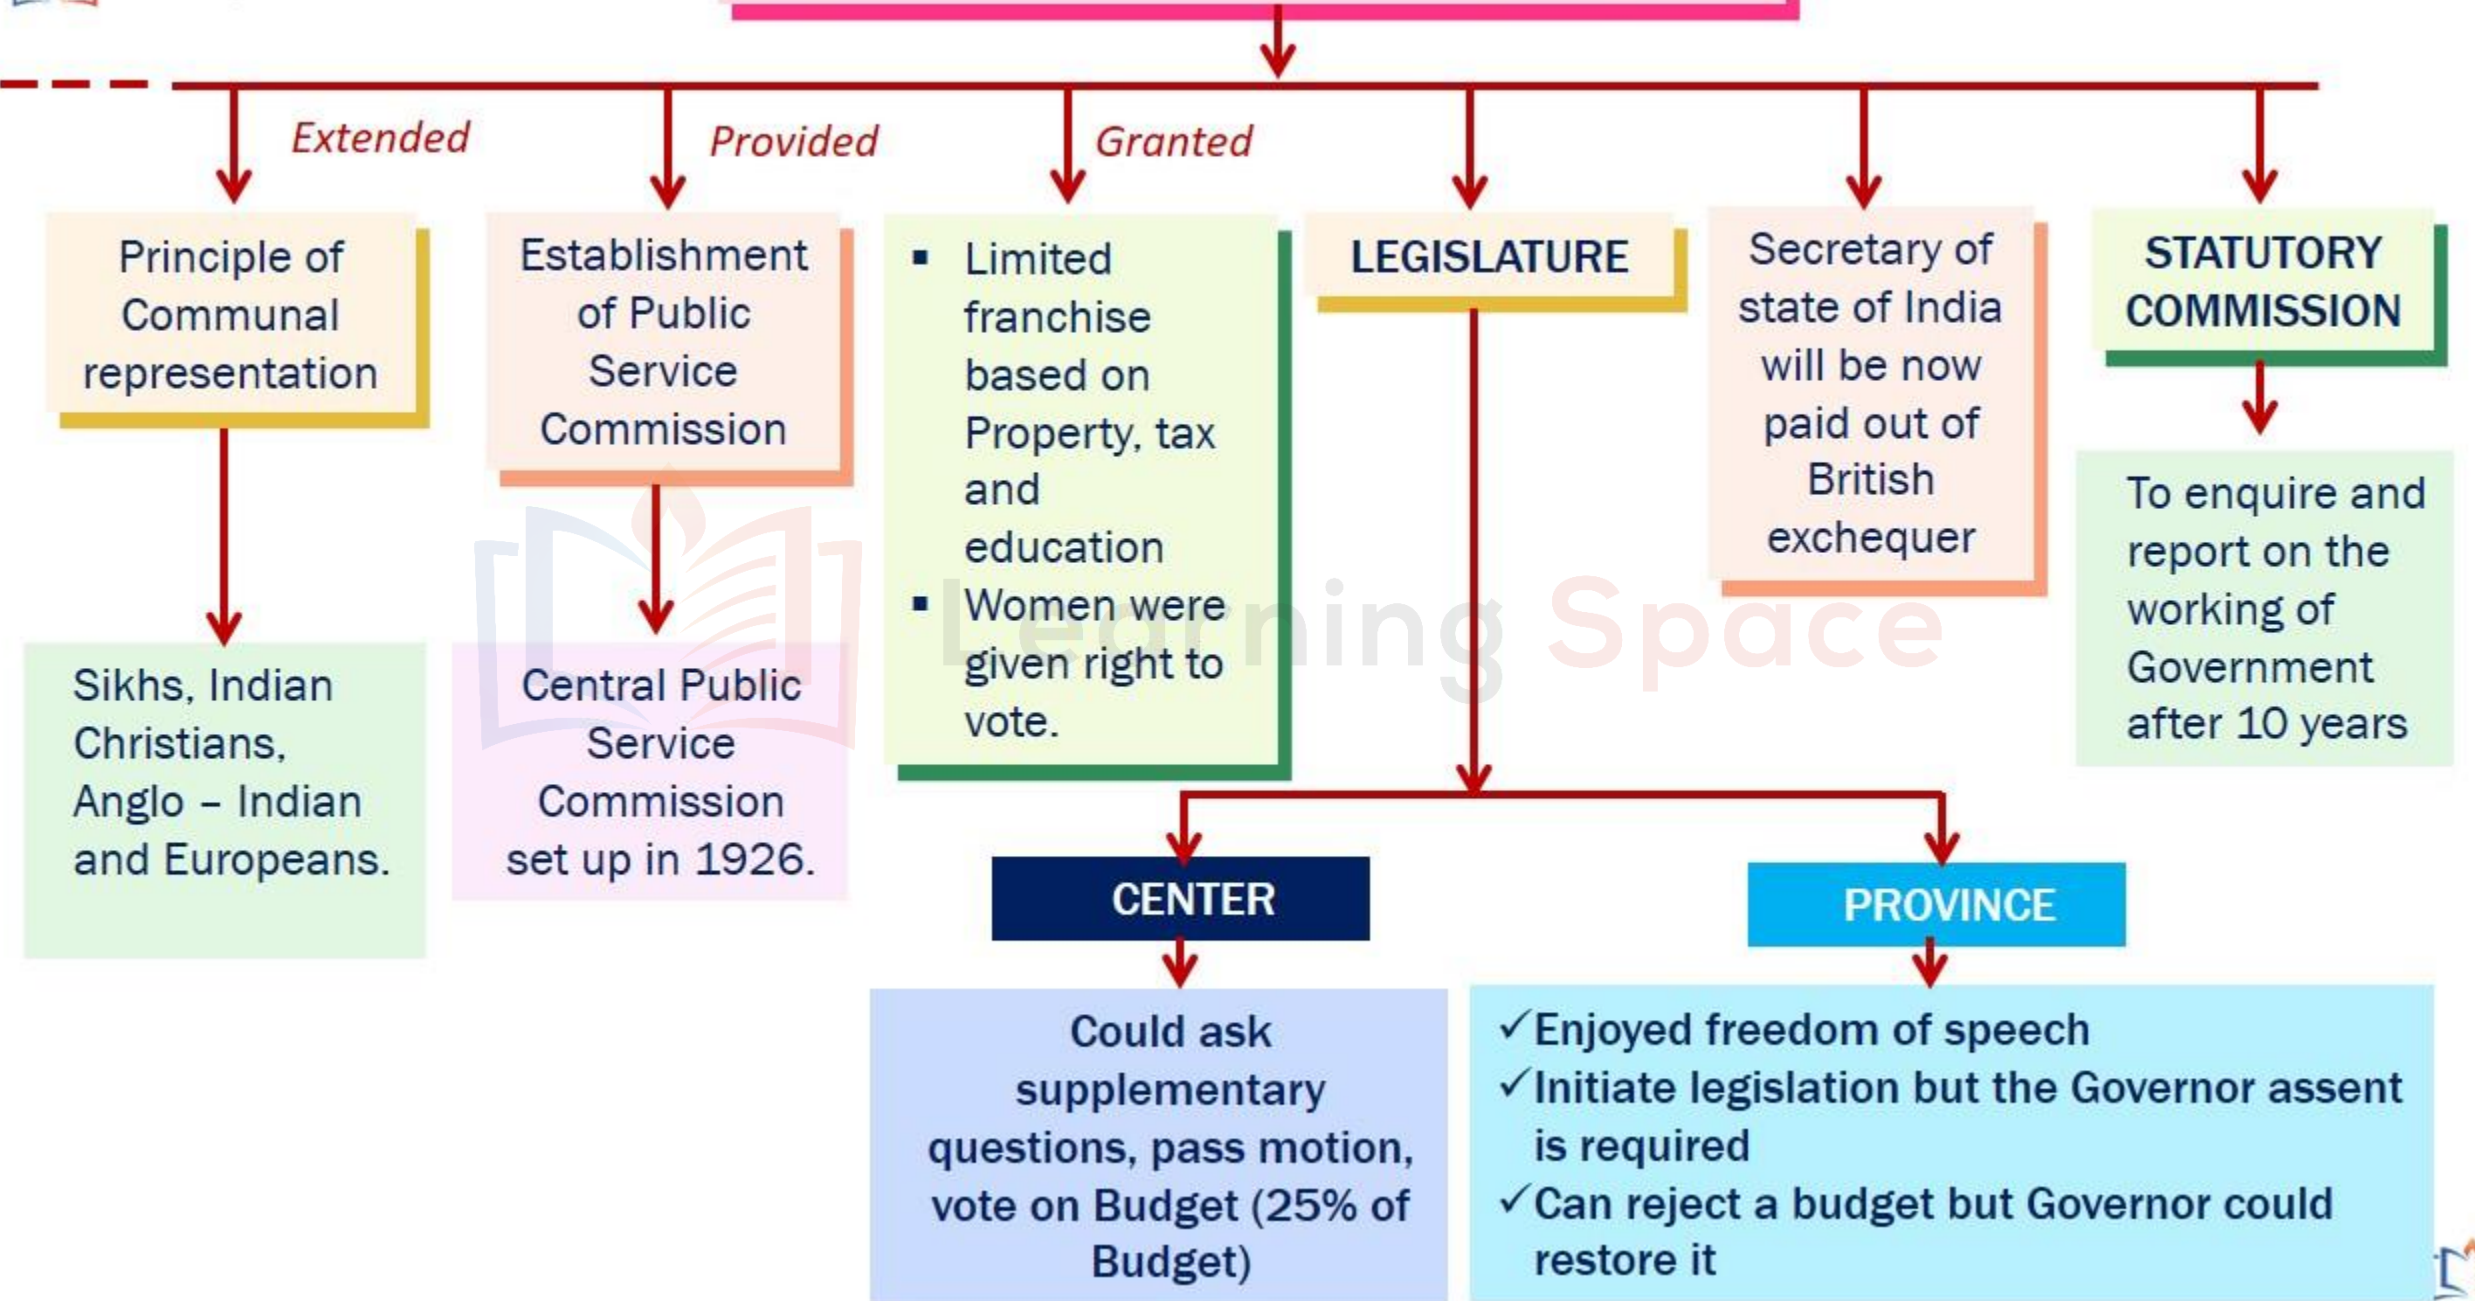

VISCOUNT CHELMSFORD
VICEROY OF INDIA

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA ACT - 1919

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA ACT - 1919

This act marked the end of the policy of benevolent despotism, and thus began the genesis of the responsible government in India.

EVALUATION OF GOVERNMENT OF INDIA ACT - 1919

STEP TOWARDS A RESPONSIBLE GOVERNMENT

- First time, direct elections were known to the people and this created political consciousness
- Indians came in direct contact with administration for the first time
- Number of the Indian in Governor General in Council raised from 3 to 8.

STEP TOWARDS A FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Prepared the ground for the Indian Federalism, as it identified the provinces as units of fiscal and general administration.

BUT NATIONALIST HAD HIGHLIGHTED 3 MAJOR DEFECTS

- Absence of responsible government at the center,
- Separate electorates for different communities will undermine the nationalistic feeling by creating division in the society.
- Introduction of diarchy in the province was too complicated to work and provided only partial transfer of power.
